

PROVE LOYALTY OR BE DEPORTED TO JAPAN

This week, the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco ruled that about 4,000 American-born Japanese who renounced United States citizenship during World War II must either prove their loyalty or be deported to Japan.

The ruling, according to an Associated Press dispatch, overturned a previous Federal Court decision which held that the Nisei renounced their citizenship under duress and compulsion of imperial warmongers among their countrymen. These Nisei, confined at the Tule Lake, Calif., detention camp during the war, created much disturbance, causing anti-Japanese feeling to reach a height never before seen in the annals of American history.

The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruling, we believe, is more than fair enough. It enables those "no-no" Nisei to clear their status and re-enter the American way of life simply by proving themselves to be good Americans.

Service to one's country—and in this instance, there is only the United States—is the highest goal anyone can ask of any American. And service to one's country also means loyalty to one's country. And loyalty is Americanism, and "Americanism is a matter of the heart and mind".

Those renunciants, all of whom were probably more embittered by the mass evacuation than were influenced by the hot-headed agitators in Tule Lake, are afforded a fine opportunity of "making up" with everyone, including the majority of the Nisei who withstood the shocking impact of the '42 wholesale exodus without resorting to the extremely ill-advised move of renouncing their American citizenship.

Since the end of World War II, the American people—although they were not altogether responsible for the action taken by DeWitt and his Army colleagues—have had a change of heart and have treated the Japanese Americans on a fair plane. Opportunities never before dreamed of, have been opened to them, and the government—local and national—has, in some cases, went out of its way to be helpful to us.

If the renunciants would just admit their wartime errors and pledge loyalty to our country, then all would be forgiven.

Then, the sacrifice of many lives suffered by the heroic all-Nisei 442nd Combat Infantry Team would not have been in vain.

But, if the renunciants still cannot see the light and still insist on civil rights (which are debatable in time of national emergency and all-out war), then our government should not hesitate to deport them to Japan. We surely cannot support those who straddle the fence on the pertinent matter of loyalty.

YORTY'S BILL WOULD END RACIAL BIAS

Calif. Representative Lifts Issei Hopes For Citizenship

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20 (ADC)—A freshman representative from California, Samuel W. Yorty, (D.), has introduced a bill to remove race in naturalization saying he hoped it would "demonstrate our attachment to the principles of justice", the JACL ADC said today.

Rep. Yorty was elected to succeed Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas who unsuccessfully sought election as a Senator from California.

When he introduced the measure, Rep. Yorty said: "During these days when democracy is called upon to block the ambitious encroachments of communism, it is fitting that we should strive not only to preserve our democracy, but also to improve and perfect it."

"In introducing (this) bill, I am seeking to accomplish what I know is the will of the majority of the Congress, and which surely would have been accomplished by the last Congress except for technical legal difficulties."

"Many of our resident aliens now ineligible for citizenship are the parents of children who served with great distinction in the last war. The largest numbers are of Japanese descent, and if reason to bar them from citizenship ever existed that reason most certainly does not exist today."

He said passage of such a law would strengthen the bonds of friendship between the United States and Japan, but added:

"Of course, the international situation is not as important as the desire to demonstrate our attachment to the principles of justice by dealing justly with the almost 100,000 loyal Americans who have resided among us for many years, who have worked and lived as good Americans... but who are, nevertheless, technically barred from ever being able to proudly say: 'I am a citizen of the United States.'"

"I am sure this Congress will want to make it possible for these people to obtain their citizenship without further delay."

The bill introduced by Rep. Yorty is identical to the Walter Naturalization bill, a measure first introduced at the request of the JACL ADC, and which, in the words of Mike Masaoka, "the JACL ADC is fighting for in justice to the thousands of loyal Issei in the United States. They deserve citizenship. I know eventually Congress will give it to them."

MEASURE WOULD GIVE CHARTER TO BUDDHIST CHURCH OF QUEBEC

MONTREAL, Canada, Jan. 20—A private bill will be introduced in the Quebec Legislature when it opens its 1951 sessions late this month which, if passed, would grant a charter to the Buddhist Church of Quebec, in Montreal. This would legally recognize Buddhism as a religion in Quebec with rights to establish a church within the province.

Barring unforeseen developments, it is expected to pass the house. In accordance with the laws of the province, a public notice was inserted for four successive weeks in both English and French newspapers to the effect that the Buddhist Church was seeking incorporation as an ecclesiastical body to which no objection had been received.

The need for a charter arises out of the fact that under a Quebec law Catholicism, Protestantism and Judaism are the only religions which are legally recognized and the others must present a petition for a charter to the Legislative Assembly. While the latter, and this includes Buddhism, might be morally sanctioned in Quebec, without a charter, they have not the usual privileges accorded to officially recognized religious organizations.

In a sense, the law seems to favor these three major religions, but it is not discriminatory. It does not bar any established religious sects from seeking or obtaining a charter. So far as is known, Quebec is the only province in which Buddhism does not enjoy full status as a church group.

Under the charter, the Buddhist Church will have full power to carry on religious work. It will permit them to acquire property and the right to perform acts of civil status as marriages, and to keep registers of such acts.

The movement to apply for a charter had its beginning last May at the Eastern Canada Young Buddhist League Convention held in Montreal at the time. At that time, the Montreal Bussei appealed to the league that it undertake a campaign to obtain the necessary charter which would grant religious status to the Montreal Buddhists as it was not possible for Montreal to undertake it alone as the cost of presenting a bill was $2,000.

As an ECYBL project, an appeal was made to all Buddhist groups throughout Canada. The response has been very encouraging with many pledges of assistance. The ECYBL is planning a concert to be organized by its three member chapters of Toronto, Hamilton and Montreal to be presented in the spring as one of the projects towards raising the charter fund.

LOSS CAUSED BY LEASEHOLD SALE ALLOWED UNDER CLAIMS ACT--ADC

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 20 (ADC)—The Attorney General has ruled a loss resulting from the sale of a leasehold interest is compensable under the Evacuation Claims Act, the JACL ADC announced today.

The decision was handed down in the case of a Los Angeles resident who sought compensation when forced to give up, at a loss, a lease on a small hotel of the Japanese ancestry were evacuated from the West Coast.

The claim alleged a loss of $1440.50, including $500 spent in renovating and equipping the hotel as well as some personal property. The balance was claimed for loss in the sale of the lease back to the original owner.

The Attorney General said "it would be a strict and unrealistic construction of the (Evacuation Claims) Act to hold that the phrase 'loss of real or personal property' comprehends only losses of tangible property or incorporeal property rights."

All items claimed were allowed, with the exception of a rather expensive camera which disappeared from storage while the claimant was in a relocation camp.

The Attorney General said the claimant should have deposited the camera with local police as required by law. This loss was disallowed.

The claimant was awarded a total of $1300.

Mike Masaoka, national JACL ADC director, said the Attorney General's interpretation of losses on a lease was "in line with what the JACL ADC has urged in the past". He said he was "pleased with the decision".

CLERK TYPIST AIDS AIR UNIT

Nisei 'Sarge' Assigned As Interpreter on Rescue Missions

JOHNSON AIR BASE, Honshu, Japan, Jan. 20 (Special to ADC)—Sgt. Hisao Matsumiya, son of Rinzeon Matsumiya, 12125 Pacific Ave., Culver City, Calif., is a clerk typist with the 3rd Rescue Squadron. But he has had more than a taste of conditions in Korea.

While his work as a clerk has not carried him into actual combat, he has been assigned many times as an interpreter during ground rescue missions behind enemy lines.

Air Force officials here said the sergeant's knowledge of Japanese has been of great assistance in carrying out some rescue missions.

Sgt. Matsumiya was born in Talbert, Calif., and later moved to Houston, Texas, where he was graduated from Jefferson Davis high school in 1946.

He enlisted in the Air Force in December, 1948, and took basic training at Sheppard Air Force Base, Texas. In December, 1949, he was assigned overseas on duty with the Air Rescue Service and has been with the 3rd Rescue Squadron since March, 1950.

Among relatives in Japan, the sergeant has visited since his arrival has been a brother, Genji Matsumiya, Kyoto.

A Letter from Anti-TB Group

YOU'RE QUITE WELCOME

Dear Mr. Fukei:

On behalf of Mr. Clyde Dunn, publicity chairman for the 1950 Christmas Seal Sale, and the Board of Directors of the Anti-Tuberculosis League of King County, may I take this opportunity to thank you for the great assistance you have given the 1950 Christmas Seal Sale. We are indeed grateful for your help in presenting the need for Christmas Seal funds to fight tuberculosis.

The 1950 Christmas Seal Sale is now $26,440 short of the goal of $173,000 — the minimum amount needed to maintain the present program against tuberculosis. While lagging returns have picked up some they have not been sufficient to reach the goal. We hope that late returns from persons who were busy during the holiday season will total the amount needed.

Thank you again—and best wishes for the New Year.

Sincerely,

s/ (Miss) Honoria Hughes

ALTERING DRESS WAISTLINES

The only woman who likes to feel that the waistline of her dress or skirt is too loose is the woman who is trying to reduce; she does not object to altering waistlines. Most women are annoyed, however, at the frequent stretching of the waistline of a dress which at first fit correctly. There are several ways to keep waistlines from stretching.

If a dress has a waistline seam, as most one-piece dresses have, the quickest but least effective way is to stitch the seam twice, placing the second machine stitches right on top of the first.

A better way to prevent stretching is to stitch some material which will not stretch into the waistline seam. For cotton and linen dresses, a cotton twill tape is good. For light weight, light colored dresses, the straight tape which is used by tailors for taping crease lines and edges may be used on waistlines.

If you have a piece of dress fabric which has a firm selvedge, cut a strip long enough for the waistline of your dress and 1/4 inch wide. This has the advantage of matching the color of your dress.

For wool dresses, grosgrain ribbon which is about 1/2 inch wide is good.

The ribbon may extend all the way around your waist so that the ends can be hooked together before you fasten the dress itself. This method of fastening the grosgrain is especially good for wool jersey waistlines. Another way is to cut the ribbon when it reaches a zipper or other placket, or a facing.

If the dress has a lapped waistline seam, the straight fabric, tape or ribbon may be placed under the seam and stitched in one operation. It may be stitched with a plain seam, too, if all of the seam allowances can be pressed one way, either into the skirt or into the blouse of the dress. If the waistline seam is to be pressed open, the tape is usually sewn into the seam by secure hand sewing after the waistline seam is stitched and pressed open.

Dresses which have set-in belts (two layers of straight fabric) do not need these preventive measures.

The skirt of a two-piece dress may have a piece of muslin or grosgrain ribbon inside the skirt belt. A dress which has no waistline seam may have straight tape or ribbon inside the dress fastened to the seams, darts and placket at the location of the waistline.

For ease of motion and comfort, the waistline of a dress should remain just one inch larger than the waistline of a person.

● TODAY'S PICTURES TELL CLASSIC STORY

Photographer Nobi Kano had just returned from a ski trip when he was called upon to rush out to Spanish Castle to take pictures of the N. W. Nisei Classic victors receiving their awards.

He put out some sharp shots and told the story in pictures well. If you want to know how some of the champions felt, look in the center of this page for their reaction. Every winner had a big smile, naturally.

Where are the women?

Somewhere along the line of duty, Mister Kano misfired in shooting all the girls' winners, so we left out the only one that was printable. Certainly it would have been unfair to ignore such deserving keglerettes as Yo Nakata, the all-event winner who paired with Fumi Lee for the doubles cup; Marilyn Wong, the nice-looking Chinese star from Portland who won the singles award; and Tall's Fifth Ave. (Seattle), the championship women's team.

So, no cheesecake pix.

Anyway, a good time was had by all, except us. While everyone was gliding around the floor to Frankie Roth's music, we were waltzing around our home with a (ah, chew!) nose cold. Excuse us.

● TOPICS FROM THE SIDELINES

... see by the statistics that Ray Otani of druggist George Tokuda's Savoy's is averaging 17.2 points per game in the Class AA basketball league ... the hard-luck bowler of the N. W. Nisei Classic was Pruney Tsuji, who was second in the singles with 615, second in the sweepstakes with 1162, and third in the all-events with 1694; one of these fine tournaments, he is very much likely to break loose and take it all as he is truly a topnotch performer among the Nisei as Ted Tadich of Tacoma is in the majors ... returning to the maple court game, don't miss the Harlem Globetrotters, the Negro cage wizards who can make a basketball do everything but sing; the dusky hotshots will tackle the Madigan Generals, N. W. pros, on Wednesday night, Jan. 31, in the Seattle Civic Auditorium ... joining Ford Konno in the National AAU All-America ranks is another Hawaii Nisei, Evelyn Kawamoto, 16-year-old Honolulu high school student, who this week was named to the 1950 women's All-America swimming team in the 300-yard 300-meter medley event in which she is the present national women's outdoor champion ... a subscriber ribbed us because the Question Marks are threatening to hit rock-bottom in the girls' hoop circle; our only answer to the rub is that Keiko Kitayama, their high-scoring forward, has been out of action for a long, long time ... the boxing game is at its lowest interest due to fatal injuries suffered by some pugilists—which reminds us that Hal Hoshino, who when he was in his prime was a sensational knockout artist, once told us that he wouldn't be in the ring if he couldn't sock hard enough to belt his opponent out; "There's no point in taking a lot of punishment and not having the punch to win," he often said ...

Mrs. Oyama, Misses Takemura and Ono Lead Keglerettes in SNGBO Matches

Leading scorers in the SNGBO (Seattle Nisei Girls' Bowling Organization) matches last Thursday night in Main Bowl were Mickey Oyama (550) of North Coast Importing, and Mary Takemura (543) and Madge Ono (509) of Tom's Grocery.

Mrs. Oyama's team, however, bowed to Martha's Beauty Shop, 4 to 0, in a closely-contested affair. Mrs. Oyama's games were 162, 197 and 191.

Miss Takemura and Miss Ono's Tom's Grocery five had better luck. The grocers toppled Frank Russo's Enterprises, 3 to 1. Miss Takemura's counts were 178, 209 and 156, and Miss Ono's, 194, 156 and 159.

In other tilts, N. P. Hotel drew with Gyokko Ken Cafe, 2-2; Tall's Fifth Ave. decisively won Nogiaki's Buickettes, 3-1; and Takano Studio downed Frank's Jewelry, 3-1.

Terao's Cop Two From 14th Ave.

Fourteenth Ave. Service held its hold on first place in the Nisei Merchants league last Thursday in Main Bowl despite its 1-2 loss to Terao's. The leaders (37-17) have a five-game margin over second-place Nisei Grill and Yesler Appliance.

The auto dealers' Brownie Nomura smashed the alleys for a 571 series, aided by Sub Takeuchi with 539 and Mote Yasuda with 502. Fourteenth Ave. had three 500-plus men—Joe Hayashi, Nobi Suyama and Eddie Horiuchi.

The hottest bowler was Skunk Nakamura, the southpaw smoothie who hit a pair of 200's (a 219 and a 232) in a 606 series to lead Nisei Grill to a 3-0 victory over Hatari Realty. Osa Edamura helped with 526. Fred Suto shot 523 for the losers.

Others firing well during the night were Ken Teramoto (536), Kallio Suguro (505), Sat Sakuma (502) and Shig Urakawa (502).

Nat'l Pin Tourney Set March 16-18

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Jan. 20—The three-day weekend of March 16, 17 and 18 was selected as the date for the fifth annual National JACL Bowling tournament to be held at the Vogue Bowling Alleys here, it was announced jointly by the Los Angeles Nisei Bowling Association and the L. A. JACL Coordinating Council, comprised of four chapters, following a meeting of officials from both groups in the JACL office this week.

The postmark of March 3 will be the closing date for all entries, which will be accepted only from JACL members in good standing in accordance with the moral support sanction of the American Bowling Congress, under which the tournament will be held.

Harley Kusumoto, chairman of the NBA, has applied to the Los Angeles bowling association for the ABC sanction as well as approval of entry blanks and promotional posters in accordance with ABC regulations.

Coordinating Council Chairman Bill Takei revealed that various JACL committees would prepare the souvenir program, arrange for hotel reservations, mail out entry blanks, and work with NBA committeemen on registration, scorekeepers, and publicity. The Club Service Bureau of the JACL, the year-old coordinating center of Nisei club activities, will take charge of the "Awards Dinner Dance" under the chairmanship of Dorothy Kikuchi, according to Sue Takimoto, CSB director.

The sweepstakes events are to take place on Friday evening, March 16, and the following two days devoted to singles, doubles and team events for both men and women as well as a mixed doubles event.

It was hoped that more than one team of bowlers would be entered from Hawaii. Word is awaited from Eddie Matsueda, spokesman for the Hawaiian keglers.

Allons Virtually Take Girls' Loop Crown With 7th Triumph

Class A battle between Lotus Lancers and Baptist Midgets occupied the featured spot on Thursday's court action as the Buddhist five defeated the Baptists, 38-29, to stay within striking distance of undefeated U Students.

With the Lancers leading all the way, youthful Midgets fought desperately to stay in the game. Bob Namba and Tom Yamaguchi potted nine apiece for the losers, while Jits Oyabe and Sammy Shimizu both scored 11 for the victors.

In the other games played on Thursday, Tokuda Drug Savoy's swamped Methodists, 67-37, in the AA tussle, and Question Marks put Tacoma out of title consideration with a 28-20 score in the girls' division.

Shobo Fujii, Ray Otani and Bobby Kodama tallied most of the drug-gists' total as they sank 15, 14 and 12 respectively. For the Methodists, Ted Nakanishi stood out with 14.

Sumi Suguro found the range by ringing up 17 points for the Question Marks, with Koz Nakanishi assisting her with eight counters, while the Mid Tanabe-Jane Yoshioka combination for Tacoma wasn't enough to erase the eight-point deficit at the final horn.

Superior Used Cars won a thriller over Cavaliers last Wednesday when George Kozu sank the winning basket just before the final horn sounded. The car dealers were trailing, 45-46, when Kozu let fly a one-hander which found the basket. Bob Murray was high for Cavaliers with 18, while Kozu tallied 12 for Superior.

Allons virtually clinched the girls' division championship by tripping Lotus Jrs., 28-18. With Tacoma out of the running, U. W. Coeds remain as the only other sextet with a possible chance at the crown. At present, the Allons are ahead of Coeds two full games.

White River Bussels edged Monarchs, 25-21 in the A class battle last Wednesday. Dan Hiranaka led the Valley outfit with his 10 points, while Tats Furugori also had 10 for the Seattleites.

New Tokyo Keglers Climb to First

PORTLAND, Oreg., Jan. 20—New Tokyo climbed into a first-place tie with King's Insurance in the Oregon Nisei Bowling league last Wednesday night in the Hollywood Alleys. The game-deciding factor for New Tokyo against Nishimoto Insurance was Vic Nishijima's whopping 246 game in the third. New Tokyo won, 2 to 1.

King's Insurance took the Dragoners, 2 to 1, in the other important match.

Ted Hachiya bashed the maples for a 584 series to lead Maletis Bros. to a crushing 3-0 triumph over Russellville.

Other results were: J. K. Kida 3, N. W. Insurance 0; Motor Clinic 2, Kern Park 1.

The Social Whirl

• SPOKANE WEDDING

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 20 — Starting out the year with married life are Miss Mary Ehama and Mr. Jack T. Hisayasu, whose wedding was solemnized at a double-ring ceremony on Sunday, Jan. 14, in the Grant St. Methodist Church. The Rev. T. Shimada officiated against a background of white gladioli and silver candelabra. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Sayo Ehama and the groom, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. K. Hisayasu.

Given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Roy Akiyama, the bride wore a gown of traditional white satin with long sleeves and a fitted bodice. The low, rounded neckline had a net insert and was appliqued with Italian quilting in a floral design. A long train fell from a fully-gathered skirt with a lowered waistline. A fingertip veil of illusion was attached to a white satin halo head-dress. The bridal bouquet consisted of pink carnations centered with a large white orchid and streamers of white ribbons.

Miss Jean Emoto, the honor attendant, had on a gold satin gown with a closely-fitted bodice, a lowered corded waistline dipping in front and in back, and a gathered, hoop skirt. A separate cape, also of gold satin, covered the shoulders. In addition, the maid of honor wore a headdress of white and pink rosebuds and white string gloves. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. George Yoshida and Miss Susie Heyamoto, were identically gowned in burnt-orange satin cut similarly to that of the maid of honor's with the exception of a low, pointed waistline. They carried bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations and wore yellow and white rosebuds in their hair.

Serving as flower girl was Beverly Onishi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Onishi. Her white gown of red dotted swiss had a shawl collar and a long, gathered skirt.

The groom was attended by Mr. George Yoshida as best man and Messrs. Sumio Matsumoto and George Ehama as ushers.

Mrs. J. Okamoto played the nuptial music and accompanied Miss Tsuyo Migaki as she sang "At Dawning", "Because" and the "Lord's Prayer".

The mother of the bride wore a blue dressmaker suit with black accessories while Mrs. Hisayasu, the groom's mother, was in a black velvet gown with a black hat trimmed with a large white curled ostrich plume. Both had orchid corsages.

At the reception in the Roundup Room of the Desert Hotel, Mr. H.

Kasai acted as master of ceremonies. The guest book was taken care of by Miss Yoshi Nakai and the wedding cake was served by the Mesdames Sab Hisayasu, Frank Hisayasu, Harry Yoshida, Roy Akiyama, M. Eto, T. Kaneshige and Miss Martha Tsuji. Mrs. Sumio Matsumoto and Mrs. Harry Nakata were in charge of the gifts.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. M. Eto and her two children from San Luis Obispo, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Tad Katayama and family, Seattle; Mr. and Mrs. S. Kiba, Seattle; and Mrs. Tom Kaneshige, Oakland, Calif.

After a brief honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Spokane.

• ENGAGEMENT TOLD

Mrs. Kay Shimomura announces the engagement of her daughter, Hatsuko Shimomura, to Mr. James Tamura, son of Mr. and Mrs. Y. Tamura.

The news was told to relatives and close friends of the bride-elect at an Italian dinner served by candlelight on Sunday, Jan. 14, in Louis Polet Italian Dinners.

No date has been set for the wedding.
