

Community Chest Goal for '48 Set at 2 Million

Ex-Seattleite Wins St. Mary Cross From Kenosha, Wis., School; Gets Scholarship to Illinois College

KENOSHA, Wis., Aug. 12 (Special to Northwest Times)—Miss Alice Kumiko Uchida, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Y. Uchida of Seattle, recently was awarded the St. Mary Cross for her singular contribution during her life at Kemper Hall here.

The citation read: "She has fulfilled every responsibility placed upon her; has met disappointments with courage; and overcome prejudice by her discretion and understanding. By her cheerfulness, modesty, integrity, and quiet devotion to duty she has won the admiration and affection of the school."

Miss Uchida went to Kemper Hall on a scholarship from Hunt High School, Hunt, Idaho. Recently, she was awarded another scholarship, this time to Rockford College in Rockford, Illinois.

She has three brothers, Kim, Shig and Tosh. Kim is a former member of the fighting 442nd Infantry Combat Team, and Shig, a veteran in the Military Intelligence Service.

56 PER CENT FAVOR EARLY JAPAN TREATY

Fifty-six per cent of the American people are in favor of a separate peace treaty with the United States with Japan without Russia, according to a recent Gallup poll report published this week.

Only 25 per cent were opposed with 19 per cent expressing no opinion. It was declared by George Gallup, director of the American Institute of Public Opinion.

The question asked in the poll early in July, even before the Russians refused to join the proposed 11-nation Japanese peace conference, was as follows:

"Some people say that if Russia and the United States cannot agree on peace terms for Germany and Japan, the United States should go ahead without Russia and make a separate peace with these two countries. Do you approve or disapprove of this idea?"

Japanese Still Cling to Christianity, Woman Missionary Tells Buffalo Group

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 12—"Christ and his kingdom are firmly enthroned in the hearts and lives of the Japanese Christians," the Third World Convention of the Churches of Christ was told last week.

In an address, Mrs. R. A. Doan of Indianapolis, Ind., vice president of the United Christian Missionary Society, said:

"Japanese Christians have not turned their backs on Christ."

The sturdy patience, thrift and resourcefulness she saw the Japanese exemplify after the 1923 earthquake, Mrs. Doan said, "still persist and that, in record time, Japan will be rebuilt, business will be resumed and a better economy will be the order of the day."

FUNDS TO PAY FOR COST OF RELIEF UNITS

The goal of the Community Chest of Seattle and King County in its campaign for 1948 will be $1,587,744. It was announced last weekend by Irving S. Smith, campaign chairman.

"There's a job to do—and we will do it," Mr. Smith asserted, setting the keynote of optimism and determination for the forthcoming campaign.

Immediately following the goal announcement, a group of 19 civic leaders of Seattle and King County issued a public statement in which they declared: "We believe in the Community Chest." Prominent businessmen, professional leaders, labor unions officials and others joined in the statement, which explained "why we stand behind the Chest in its campaign to obtain the money that the Red Feather services will need to operate in 1948."

The money raised in the fall campaign will pay the operating costs of 37 local Red Feather welfare and health services throughout the calendar year 1948. Mr. Smith explained after weeks of careful study by the Budget Committee, review by the Executive Committee, and finally approval by the Chest's Board of Directors.

The Budget Committee and the other groups which have passed on the goal, Mr. Smith noted, include volunteers from all walks of life, including business and professional men, labor officials and housewives.

"In supporting the Red Feather agencies of the Community Chest," Mr. Smith emphasized, "the people of Seattle and King County are doing more than giving to a group of worthy causes. They are buying services for themselves and their neighbors. Everybody benefits from the services of the Chest agencies. They are preventive, designed to serve the whole community in the same way that the Fire Department and other community services protect us through a preventive program. Support of the Community Chest, therefore, represents an investment in the welfare of all of us."

'We Believe in the Community Chest'

We believe in our Community Chest and the services it represents. We know that Seattle and all of King County cannot do without these services, because they protect us and our neighbors—and we know, after 26 years of experience with one campaign instead of fifty, that the Community Chest offers the most modern, efficient way to finance these services, and to insure that the money will be spent wisely.

Because we believe these things with all our hearts, we are making this public statement to give our answer to a question which faces everyone in our community this year.

The Community Chest has announced that its goal in the campaign for 1948 will be $1,587,744, or 12 per cent more than last year's goal.

The goal has been decided by the Community Chest's Board of Directors after weeks of study by the Budget Committee. Both the Board and the Budget Committee

Japanese Show Exhibits Works

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 12—An exhibition of the works of 26 well-known and novice artists of the Chicago area at the first art show sponsored by the recently organized Gaka Guild.

Most of the exhibitors are Nisei. The purpose of the group is to stimulate art in various fields such as photography, industrial art, commercial and fine art, sculpturing and ceramics.

Mas Nakagawa heads the group with Joe Ito, v. p.; Nori Kenmotsu, sec.; and Mary Takahashi, treasurer. Eto is in charge of this first activity of the guild.

Among those exhibiting their works are Byron Goto, Miyoko Ito, Kay Masuda, Betty Matsumoto, Ben Matsumoto, Charles Nakata, Ken Nishi, Nancy Omlie, Sylvia Omoto, Rokin (Mr. and Mrs. Bud Kinoshita), Hide Sato, S. George Tajiri, Mary Takahashi, N. Takihata, Hero Tamura, Hatsue Toyoshima, Steven Wada, Fumi Yamada and the guild officers.

Japan to Send Yuletide Toys

TOKYO, Aug. 12—Japan, now allowed to resume limited foreign trade, soon will send quantities of toys and Christmas tree decorations to the United States, Japanese business sources reported Monday.

The first shipment will include 5,000 "holy sets"—miniature scenes of Christ's birth—as well as other Christmas decorations plus 8,000 dozen toy tricycles and an assortment of spring-operated mechanical toys.

Thanks 'Mac' For Peace Talk

HIROSHIMA, Aug. 12—Mayor Shinzo Hamai sent a letter to Gen. MacArthur thanking the supreme Allied commander for his peace festival message on the occasion of the second anniversary of the atom bomb blast over Hiroshima.

The message stressed the Hiroshima residents have firmly resolved to make every effort to contribute toward lasting world peace.

Kagawa to Lead Anti-Red Unit

TOKYO, Aug. 12—Dr. Toyohiko Kagawa, internationally famous Christian leader, was elected president of the anti-Communist All-Japan Farmers' Union (Zenkoku Nogyokai) at its recent inaugural meeting at the lecture hall of Chuo University at Kanda.

The meeting was attended by 1700 agrarian representatives throughout the country.

With the birth of the new farmers union, the Japanese agricultural movement has been broken up into two rival camps—the All-Japan Farmers Union backed by the right-wing Socialists and the Japan Farmers Union supported by the left-wing Socialists and Communists. The Liberal Party is contemplating the formation of yet a third farmers union.

Evil into the mind of God or man, may come and go, and yet, if unapproved, still without sin. —Milton.

Huge Trading To Japan Seen

TOKYO, Aug. 12—A prediction that Japan can build up one billion dollar export trade within a few years was made before the house of representatives foreign affairs committee this week.

Kotaro Nagai, a director of the government board of trade, said Japan could create a favorable trade balance in silk, textiles, light manufactures and chemicals.

Japanese businessmen generally have spoken with reserve over prospects when limited foreign trade is resumed Aug. 15.

Nagai said Japan might some day export $1,700,000,000 worth of products annually, but added that for "at least a few years" imports would exceed exports.

He predicted increased population would force Japan to import more than 150,000,000 bushels of foodstuffs annually at a cost of $350,000,000.

In the case of Germany a separate peace would be difficult if not impossible to draw up, since Germany is divided into occupation zones. But such difficulties are not present in the cases of Japan.

STALEY AIDE WILL SETTLE POISON CASES

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 12—Plans are being made by the A. E. Staley Manufacturing Co. of Decatur, Ill., to send a representative to Los Angeles to settle some of the claims made by customers who became ill through the use of arsenic tainted shoyu, according to a letter received here by Attorney Kenji Ito.

The Decatur manufacturing company which sells shoyu base to many Japanese bottlers and distributors in the west coast admitted that arsenic was found in some 33,000 gallons of condiment sold in California during the last month.

Paul D. Doolen, attorney for A. E. Staley, requested the exact dates that persons became sick from the use of shoyu, from whom the merchandise was purchased, the name of repacker, and other information which may substantiate the amount of claims sought by the victims.

Residents contemplating suit for damages were advised to keep the poisoned shoyu as evidence and to obtain a medical report from the doctor from whom they had received treatment.

The letter to Attorney Ito disclosed that officials of the Staley company "assured him that prompt attention will be given to matters which involve his clients."

Nisei Teaches Chick Sexing

The first school to prove that chick sexers can be trained in the United States to become expert commercial sexers without great cost to the student, is what the American Chick Sexing Association School in Lansdale, Pa., boast today.

The school is headed by S. John Nitta, a Nisei who is not only a leading export commercial sexer but is considered a foremost authority in the science.

Graduates, according to the school, are serving baby chick hatcheries in practically every state from coast to coast, and also Mexico.

Nitta's school is a member of the International Baby Chick Association, Kansas City, Mo., Pennsylvania Poultry Improvement Association, Altoona, Pa., and Jersey Chick Association, New Brunswick, N. J., and it is licensed under private trade school law of Pennsylvania and authorized for veterans' training under G. I. Bill of Rights.

It is not so important to know everything as to know the exact value of everything, to appreciate it, what we learn, and to arrange what we know.—H. More.

Issei to Head For Japan

BETTERAVIA, Calif., Aug. 12—Kenjiro Honda, 73-year-old Issei from Kumamoto prefecture, will leave for Japan on the General Meigs, September 5, from San Francisco.

He is the first Japanese national from the United States to receive a government permit to return to his homeland. He will join his wife and children there.

Postal System To Commence

TOKYO, Aug. 12—The Japanese customs service will be permitted to resume customs inspection of parcel post and small packages entering through the international postal system after Aug. 15.

Shoyu-Kai Plans 2-Day Bon Odori

Shoyu Kai of Lotus Bukkyo Senkenka will sponsor a bon odori, open to the public, this Friday and Saturday, Aug. 15 and 16, in the new Buddhist auditorium. The odori will start at 7:30 p.m. both days.

Nisei Rates Top Shorthand Award

CHICAGO, Aug. 12—The Diamond Medal Award, highest prize in the field of shorthand reporting, will be presented this month here to Lewis Y. Matsuko, 25, of New York and Chicago.

Presentation will be made to Matsuko and I. C. Brush by the Gregg Publishing Company, sponsors of the international test which has been successfully passed in the last 51 years by only 220 candidates.

Matsuko, a graduate student at Gregg College here, is a court reporter, the first Japanese American in the country to qualify for the profession. He has been free-lance reporting in Chicago and is in training to take the New York Certified Shorthand Reporter's examination this November in New York. A C. S. R. degree in court reporting is equivalent to a C.P.A. in accounting.

To achieve the honor as a Diamond Medal Award winner, candidates must successfully take shorthand notes in excess of a speed of 200 words a minute for a five-minute period with not more than 5 per cent margin for error. The rate of speaking for the average person is 160-170 words per minute.

He subsequently attended classes in the Reporting Division, Hunter College, the Pace Institute, and the School of Shorthand, all in New York. He served during war in the Military Intelligence School Language Service at Fort Snelling in court martial reporting.

Status of Nisei in Japan

Vernacular papers are announcing the opportunities for Nisei with a knowledge of the Japanese language in Japan. As the occupation forces are relaxed, the need for a larger number of civilian workers will mount.

The new loyalty purge that is taking place in federal employment has extended to Japan. Those who renounced their American citizenship or whose status are not clear have been released. The fact that repatriates and renunciants had been given lucrative jobs had been the source of complaint on the part of the Nisei GIs with the occupation army.

There are multitude of problems concerning the nationality of many of the Nisei who were in Japan from prior to the outbreak of war. Some of them renounced their American citizenship after the surrender of Japan. Other worked in government positions which were available only to Japanese subjects. Those who were drafted in the Japanese army have their own problems. As the screening progresses, the problems seem to become more complicated.

"Excepting for those who are in the U. S. government service, Japan is no place to live today. Only those who obtain their rations from the army exchanges have adequate food without paying exorbitant prices.

Japan is not the land of opportunity to anyone today. Industry is not making a comeback as yet because of the reparation uncertainty. Some Nisei may think that because they are American citizens, they may be able to have greater freedom to exploit. However, Japan is a conquered territory and therefore, until the peace terms are set, legitimate investments and development are going to abide their time. It is a small wonder that thousands are longing to return to their land of birth. Despite the racial action between the two governments prevailing in this action, country, for the ordinary citizen, America is the land of opportunity. Any Nisei who thinks otherwise will learn to his sorrow that a foreign country is not a place to go at this time.

There seems to be resentment in some quarters if any help should be proffered to those Nisei who are stranded in Japan. We must not overlook the fact that if the rights of these Nisei are curtailed, it is bound to be boomerang. Whatever rights the Nisei in Japan have should be protected and accorded to them.

In some respects, the loss of their citizenship rights has occurred through ignorance of Japanese laws. For instance, if a person should marry a Japanese subject and have his name registered in the family record, the question of dual citizenship immediately arises. In the case of a mate, this may subject, and loss of his American citizenship.

When the peace conference is held it may be an opportune time to have Japan and the United States clarify the dual citizenship status of the citizens of the two countries. Japan should be asked to renounce all rights over Japanese Americans who claim to be American citizens. Those who desire to do so should be given the opportunity to register with the Japanese government. Those who fail to do so within a prescribed time should be considered without any status as a Japanese subject.

The practice of registering one's name into the family record should be considered only for marriage purposes and for the laws of succession. It should not be considered as a naturalization procedure. When these problems are given study and clarified, the status of the Nisei stranded in Japan may become simplified. It will take time but the number involved warrants an investigation and some land of birth. Despite the racial action between the two governments prevailing in this action, country, for the ordinary citizen,

—Utah Nippo

Better Than Tea? It's Coffee

TOKYO, Aug. 12—The Japanese people, along with the British, are known as the tea drinkers of the world but it seems the Japanese prefer coffee.

Although the Japanese do drink tea, especially at home with their meals, there are few tea shops in town compared to the hundreds of coffee shops which have mushroomed up on the various streets of most cities in this country.

Japanese Claims New 400 Mark

TOKYO, Aug. 12—Hironoshin Furuhashi, 19-year old Nisei university swimming star, Saturday claimed a new world's record for the 400-meter free style event after swimming the distance in 4:38.8 during the semi-finals of the all-Japan swimming championships here last Friday night.

Japanese swimming authorities claimed Furuhashi's mark shattered the world's 5-meter course record set recently by 16-year old Jimmy McLane in the United States.

Furuhashi would be Japan's biggest hope in the 1948 Olympics if Japan should be invited to compete. He is 5 ft. 8 in. tall and weighs 157 pounds.

Nisei Lassie Wed to Ex-Marine Linked in Immigration Puzzle

TOKYO, Aug. 12—Rose Hirata McMahon, attractive 21-year old Nisei cashier at the Tokyo officers' billet, wants to join her ex-marine husband in America, either as a United States citizen or a Japanese war bride—but right now she is a girl without a country, reports Peter Kalischer of United Press.

Rose who married Eugene P. McMahon of Lancaster, Pa., last January in a ceremony at Tokyo's Tsukiji Hongwanji temple presents a kind of a hair-splitting immigration problem that is fun for everybody but the principals involved.

She may not be able to return to America as a U. S. citizen because she chose to accompany her parents when they repatriated to Japan in January, 1946, from Tule Lake center and does not recall whether she renounced her citizenship at the time.

She may not be able to rejoin McMahon, a Purple Heart veteran of Iwo Jima under the GI brides act, because the Japanese authorities, regarding the couple as Americans, failed to register the Buddhist marriage ceremony at the Tokyo municipal office.

The United States consulate at Yokohama "doubted" that immigration authorities consider temple records sufficient to admit her under the recently enacted law.

Waits for Husband
"If Mac was here everything would be all right. He is a temperamental Irishman, but he would fix things up," Rose said sadly.

When told that McMahon was blowing his top back in Lancaster over the red tape that is keeping them apart, Rose said, "That sounds just like him."

Rose said she did not care if McMahon came to Japan as he

Assured Word 'Japanese' Won't Be Used in Loyalty Checkup

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 12—That Nisei employees of the federal government will be given the same treatment as employees of other racial backgrounds in the loyalty check ordered by the President Truman was assured the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee today by Lawrence V. Meloy, chairman of the Loyalty Board and chief law officer for the Federal Civil Service Commission.

"We don't want the loyalty check to deteriorate into a witch hunt," Meloy said. "We will do everything possible to see that every person is given a fair chance and a right of appeal."

Pointing out that any Civil Service employee charged with disloyalty would be given an opportunity to appeal, Meloy added that the final appeal board would be composed of 25 prominent Americans and that appellants could present evidence and call witnesses.

The Loyalty Board chairman made the statements at a result of personal representation by ADC legislative director, Mike Masaoka, the Washington ADC office reported.

Masaoka urged the Board to use extreme care, thoroughness, and fairness in investigating Nisei employees under the loyalty check.

"We realize how vulnerable Japanese Americans are," Masaoka stated, "and sincerely hope that no witch hunt will develop out of this investigation."

Adding that before Nisei were given jobs they were screened more thoroughly by the FBI and other agencies than even the President's loyalty check proposes to do, Masaoka declared:

"We are afraid that the loyalty check may be used as an excuse for releasing Nisei arbitrarily in order to provide jobs for others."

The Sporting Thing

by bf

'Smoke, Smoke, Smoke That Cigarette' was played over the air when bf began to count his meager winnings as a result of his prognosticating last Sunday's Northwest Times Baseball League games.

bf has resumed smoking two packs a day. And it is all because he was unable to select correctly more than one winner in three attempts.

Eastern Fuel, conquerors of South End Merchants by a 26-14 count, brutally whipped the Lotus Ashuras, 17-7.

Lotus M's, who depend a lot on Richard Tsuji's hurling, bowed to the Merchants, 6-2. "Salty" Mizuta tamed the M's to lower case, m's.

The Travelers were whitewashed, 2-0, by Valley. Valley had Joe Asahara, pitching and John Asahara, catching. It appears as if the Asaharas have the Travelers' number.

Our record—"Why Don't You Say You're Sorry?"—needles this peculiar noise:

Right Wrong Pct.
16 14 .533

For Sunday, Aug. 17, bf points the finger at the Lotus M's to decision the Lotus Ashuras for the Seattle Buddhist diamond championship and for a better position in the final Northwest Times Baseball League standings.

MIZUTA TWIRLS 4-HITTER FOR WINNING GAME

Baseball-wise Yoshito Mizuta handcuffed the Lotus M's for four singles to enable his South End Merchants to score a 6-2 triumph in a Northwest Times Baseball League game last Sunday at South Park. Besides his slick pitching exhibition, Mizuta also singled one, walked twice and scored each time.

Joe Fujii rapped out a single in the fourth, driving in Mizuta who had walked, for the winning tally.

The Merchants scored two in the second, one in the fourth, and three in the fifth.

The Lotus nine took advantage of two errors to push across two runs in the third.

Vets Trounce Rainier, 8-4

Seattle Nisei Veterans, winner of the blue section title in the Puget Sound Baseball League, defeated Rainier District, 8 to 4, last Sunday in an exhibition game at Columbia playfield. The Vets used Mas Nakamichi, R. Fujiwara and George Shimizu in that order on the mound.

EASTERN FUEL TOPS ASHURAS EASILY, 17-7

Eastern Fuel, which had all the makings of a championship aggregation, finished its season in the Northwest Times Baseball League by swatting out a smashing 17-7 triumph over the hapless Lotus Ashuras last Sunday at Garfield No. 1 field.

The Ashuras, minus the services of their ace chucker, Nobu Shimizu, who has been unable to show up the last two tilts, had to rely on versatile Tak Yagi, who usually works at shortstop and first base. Yagi, however, was pounded hard and frequently by the fuelers, including a grand slam homer by R. Tanagi in the first inning and another circuit clout by Bo Chikusa in the same frame. When all was hit and done, the fuelers piled up five runs in the first.

Religiously, the fuelers went to work with the sticks to post five markers in the fourth, and six more in the final sixth.

The loser's best efforts were sparked off by Kay Saito who drove in Mits Ando all the way in from first with a homer in the initial inning. Saito also bagged two singles for a sweet three out of four. Ando blasted a four-bagger in the sixth with no one on the sacks.

The Ashuras put up a spirited rally in the fourth by pushing in four runs on a pair of singles and doubles.

Yonamine Scores Twice in Practice; Romps 89 Yard on Return of Punt

SALNAIS, Calif., Aug. 12 (Nichi-Bei Times Dispatch) — Wally Yonamine, Nisei halfback from Maul Hawaii, stole the show as the Reds whipped the Whites, 20-13, in the San Francisco pro '49ers first intra-squad game here last Friday night.

Undaunted by the presence of such nationally-famous grid greats as Frankie Albert, Norman Stand-lee, Len Eshmont and Alyn Beals, Yonamine calmly walked off with top honors for the evening, personally scoring two touchdowns for the Reds.

Entering the contest midway in the first quarter, Wally provided the first thrill of the game with a sensational 89-yard punt return for the initial score.

89-Yard Return of Punt

Taking a towering punt from Don Durdan on his own 11-yard marker about 10 yards from the right sideline, Wally faked slightly to the right, but dashed straight toward the left sideline for seven steps, made a right angle turn at full speed and was off to the races.

Not a hand was laid on him as he broke through a small opening and he was past the fast-charging Whites and all alone for the last 75 yards. Although he isn't supposed to be a fast runner, not a man could catch him.

Beautiful Catch

Yonamine's touchdown catch of Albert's 26-yard pass for the Red's third score was also a beauty.

Starting from his right half position, Wally drifted left as the man in motion, went straight down the sidelines into the end zone, cut sharply to the right behind three White pass defenders, out maneu-vered them all and caught the ball to the left of the goal posts.

This should be enough for any one playing his first pro game, but Wally also:

Caught three more Albert passes for 4, 11, and 10 yards.

Intercepted a toss by Wallace.
Knocked down two touchdown passes.

Made 20 yards in eight carries.

Playing more than half the game,
Wally also made his share of tackles on defense.

He fumbled once and lost the ball, but what's one miscue after all that.

400 Nisei Fans

About 400 Nisei were in the crowd of 3,500 at the game, including some 200 GIs from the MISLS at the Monterey Presidio.
Yonamine was the last man to reach the shower room after the game as he was swamped by about 50 GI autograph seekers.

The '49ers play another intrasquad game in Modesto this coming Wednesday night. Their first San Francisco appearance will be Aug. 24 in a pre-season game against the L. A. Dons at Kezar.

Nisei to Enter Plane Finals

PRESNO, Calif., Aug. 12—Winning first place in a recent model airplane contest, Hideji Uyemaru, local Nisei, is slated to leave shortly for the East where he will enter his plane in several meets.

His entry flew 20 minutes for the best mark in the qualifying meet.

The youth has left for Detroit where he will compete in the International Model Airplane meet Aug. 13 to 16. He will next go to Minneapolis for the national contest from Aug. 13 to 20.

Hirose Figures In Relay Record

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Aug. 12—
A hand-picked quartette of swimmers, Bill Smith, Wally Ris, Harry Holiday and Halo Hirose, Friday night bettered the American 400-meter relay record when they negotiated the distance in 3 minutes 58.9 seconds.

Competing in the "meet of champions" before 3,000 fans at the Los Angeles swimming stadium, the four eclipsed the old mark of 4 minutes 23 seconds set in 1941 by a University of Hawaii team.

The Hawaiians, Smith and Hi-rose, competed for Ohio State, Ris
from Iowa and Holiday from Michigan.

Pasadena Athletic club was second, and the Hawaii Swim club third.

Hirose won third place in the 100-meter free-style finals.

here was the scene July 25 of the lovely candlelight marriage of Miss May Kinoshita, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Kinoshita of Portland, to Mr. Jack Watari of Compton, Calif.

The bride's gown of white nylon brocade was accented with a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was of stephanotis and orchids.

Mrs. Kim Uchida, twin sister of the bride, was matron of honor.
She wore a pink satin brocade with a headband and long net gloves of similar color. The bridesmaid was Miss Helen Kinoshita and the flower girl, Miss Kathleen Kinoshi-ta, also sisters of the bride. Helen was gown in aqua satin brocade and Kathleen in white taffeta.

Best man was Mr. Joe Watari,

Army's Used Equipment to Help Start Football League in Tokyo

TOKYO, Aug. 12—A limited amount of used equipment made available as outright gifts or on a loan basis from American army units in Japan will enable the Tokyo University league to open in October its second season of American football since the Japanese surrender.

The game which was introduced to Japanese sportdom in 1934 was suspended after the 1941 season when the Japanese government discouraged all American sports.

Football, however, with the help of the 8th army special services, 1st cavalry division and other occupation units, was revived last fall.

Working in close liaison with Allied headquarters information and education officials, the league promoters gained the necessary support to reinstitute the game for Japanese universities.

The Kanto—Eastern Japan—league which comprises six colleges and universities in the Tokyo-Yokohama area will begin their league schedule on Oct. 7 and play through Dec. 28.

Nn schedule has yet been announced by officials of the Kansai
—Osaka, Kobe and Kyoto—league which includes five teams.

Post-season games are also contemplated.

The father of American-style football in Japan is Lt. Col. Paul Rusch, now with the intelligence section of general headquarters who as professor of Rikkyo university in 1934 assumed chairmanship of the Kanto Football league and agreed to develop the teams to prepare the way for inroduction of the game.
