YWCA to Start
New Spring
Adult ClassesInterior Decoration,
Music, Other Subjects
Will Be Taught

Spring and summer activities will be emphasized in adult educational and recreational classes beginning the first week in April at the YWCA. Medical approval necessitates early enrollment for participation in all sports activities except ballroom dancing.

In the evening school classes, all subjects will be taught with an eye toward summer. Mrs. Robert L. Hosmer, instructor in interior decoration, will use summer colors and materials in her Monday evening class. The girl who wants to appear her best during vacation time will find a lot of help through Mrs. Lois Bell Sandall's personality classes or in Miss Annabeth Arnstad's dress-making session.

Other vacation "specials" are photography, taught by Frank J. Schumacher, crafts and costume jewelry demonstrated by Mrs. Louise Korman, contract bridge explained in actual play by Mr. James Brame, and Spanish and French instructed by Miss Matilde Taranto. Miss Taranto has given a conversational start to many vacationists in Mexico.

All of the eight week classes, the last of this series until next fall, are open to both men and women between the ages of 18 and 35. Women over 18 may enroll in any of the recreational classes for adults; numerous swimming and dancing classes are also provided for young girls. Two swimming clubs are open to experienced swimmers, one Tuesday afternoon for teen agers and one Wednesday evening for adults.

Other recreational activities, with emphasis on "the enjoyment of summer sports through skill in them," include golf, tennis, badminton, swimming and dancing. The crystal clear pool is also open for family swims both day and evening hours.

To complete the picture of preparation for summer at the YW, a supervised sunlamp is available every day for pre-summer skin conditioning. All class fees are non-profit in accordance with all Red Feather services of the Community Chest and Council.

Scouts Honor
Nisei Who Saved
Pal From River

PHOENIX, Ariz., March 11—Joe Yoshimoto, 13-year-old member of Washington School Boy Scout Troop 20, was presented recently with an award by Roosevelt Council, Boy Scouts of America, for rescuing a fellow troop member from drowning last fall.

Yoshimoto, son of Japan-born parents, pulled Allen Zale from the water at Blue Point, near Granite Reef Dam, after the current of the Salt river had swept Aale off his feet, as the scouts were crossing the stream.

Diving in, Yoshimoto grabbed Aale by the hair, pulled him to the shore and administered the life-saving resuscitation technique he had been taught by A. Benzner, scoutmaster, and Nat George assistant.

The presentation on behalf of the council was made by Frank Kenniston, field executive.

Maine Solon
Gives Support
To JACL PlanAssures Masaoka
House Unit Action
On Immigration Law

WASHINGTON, D.C., Mar. 11.—(JACL Dispatch)—After hearing of the many disabilities forced upon the Japanese, citizens and aliens alike, by our discriminatory naturalization and immigration laws, Representative Frank Fellows (R) of Maine, chairman of the Standing Sub-Committee on Immigration and Naturalization of the House Judiciary Committee, indicated his interest and sympathy with the general legislative program of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, Mike Masaoka, national legislative director, reported.

Masaoka explained how the various western states used the congressional classification of aliens to persecute and persecute only those of Japanese ancestry. "I cannot believe that the Congress intended that such practices should develop out of their classification of aliens as those eligible and those ineligible to citizenship," Masaoka declared.

He also explained the evaluation and relocation program to the Maine congressman, stressing the important and vital part which so many Japanese nationals played in our war effort even though they were citizens of the enemy country. Fellows seemed particularly impressed with the story of the Nisei combat and intelligence troops, and so Masaoka presented him with a copy of the history of the 442nd Combat Team.

Fellows stated that in his opinion the Japanese had conducted themselves in a manner which reflected credit upon their loyalty and deserved the utmost consideration from our government. He felt that the standing sub-committee would be generally sympathetic to granting some changes in the law.

Before concluding their interview, Chairman Fellows promised Masaoka a hearing before the sub-committee at an early date.

Says 'Mac' Backs
Hawaii Statehood

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11—Returning recently from a 24,000-mile tour of the Pacific, Rep. Clair Engle, D. of Calif., asserted that Gen. MacArthur "is of the opinion that statehood for Hawaii would be a step in support of a program to bring democracy to Japan."

Rep. Engle's comment, quoting Gen. MacArthur, contrasted with the recent advice of Rep. Fred Crawford, R. Mich., against immediate statehood for Hawaii on the ground that the possible pressure of Japanese Americans in Congress would hamper Gen. MacArthur's efforts in Japan.

"I completely agree that the territory (Hawaii) is ready for statehood, both economically and politically," Engle said. "Statehood is a fundamental step in our national policy in the Pacific and is one we should take."

Chest Council
Will Occupy
New Offices

The Community Chest and Council of Seattle and King County will move soon to its new permanent location at 1535 Summit Ave., Seattle 22, according to an announcement by Nat. S. Rogers, president of the Chest and Council. The new phone number of the Red Feather headquarters will be Minor 2200.

A ten-year lease has been signed for offices on the second floor of the building at Summit and Pine. Mr. Rogers said, adding that the new quarters will afford better accommodations for volunteer workers and staff, lower rental and convenient parking facilities.

The move is in line with a recommendation made by Mr. Roger as chairman of the Chest's campaign for 1947. In the annual report of the Chest and Council recently issued, he suggested that the organization have permanent locations for its administration offices and campaign headquarters.

The Community Chest is the central fund-raising and distributing organization for 36 local Red Feather services in the fields of welfare and health. The Council of Social Agencies, a part of the Community Chest and Council, is the planning and coordinating body for welfare and health services, both public and private.

House Body Sifts
Immigration RulingAsks Entry
Of Navy Man's
Japanese Wife

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 11.—(JACL Dispatch)—The private bill this session to permit the entry into the United States of a Japanese wife of an American serviceman who is not of Japanese ancestry has been introduced into the House legislative hopper, the Washington Office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee reported today.

The bill was introduced by Congressman Louis E. Graham of Pennsylvania and provides that Mrs. Akiko Tsukado Miller, who is the wife of Lt. (Junior Grade) John J. Miller of the United States Navy, may be admitted into this country under the provisions of the Soldier Brides' Act of 1945.

Entitled H. R. 2347, the bill was sent to the House Judiciary Committee where it joins private bills already introduced to permit the Canadian citizen Japanese wives of Lt. Makoto Kimura and ex-sergeants Robert M. Kitajima and Frank Kawagoe to enter the United States.

"The introduction of this latest bill should demonstrate even more vividly the patent discrimination of the Soldier Brides' Act," Mike Masaoka, national legislative director, declared, "and it should facilitate the passage of the other bills in which the wives of Nisei veterans are concerned."

Mrs. William Weaver Jr. of the First Methodist Episcopal Church will speak to the high school group on "boy and girl relationship" after chapel. Carl Nagai is the chairman of this group.

Lee Walker, co-chairman against discrimination for Christian friends for racial equality, and Dr. S. Fukuda, Seattle dentist, will speak to the young adult group. Paul Seto is the chairman.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Mar. 11.—(JACL Dispatch)—The possible amending of the immigration laws to prevent the deportation of certain Japanese nationals now in the U.S. was disclosed during the first executive meeting of the Standing Sub-Committee on Immigration and Naturalization of the House Judiciary Committee, the Washington Office of the ACL Anti-Discrimination Committee learned yesterday.

"The very fact that the members of the sub-committee were interested enough to discuss this important topic at their first meeting is indicative of a real desire to correct certain discriminatory features in our immigration laws," Mike Masaoka, national legislative director, declared. "This is a healthy sign and augurs well for a sympathetic consideration of our naturalization and immigration aims."

Under discussion were H. R. 674 and H. R. 1115 introduced by Democratic congressmen George P. Miller of California and Herman P. Eberharter of Pennsylvania.

Representative Miller appeared in behalf of his bill which would grant the Attorney General power to suspend deportations in cases where such deportations would result in serious economic detriment to citizens or legally resident aliens who are spouses, parents, or minor children of such deportable aliens or where the alien contributed valuable services to the war effort.

The California congressman recalled that last session the special sub-committee of which he was the chairman was favorably considering such a measure when the Attorney General advised his sub-committee that deportations of Japanese aliens in the so-called hardship and treaty merchant categories were being suspended pending final court rulings on the propriety of such deportations.

Speaking in behalf of his bill, Representative Eberharter pointed out that while the deportable aliens of other nationalities could appeal to the Attorney General for the suspension of their orders, the Japanese aliens had no such recourse open to them. He suggested that the passage of his bill would correct this situation by placing the Japanese on the same basis as other groups insofar as deportation was concerned.

The Eberharter bill provides that certain sub-sections of the immigration laws dealing with deportation be amended by striking out the words, "if not racially inadmissible or ineligible to naturalization in the United States."

From authoritative sources it was learned that the Republican members of the sub-committee, all of whom are new to immigration matters, showed great interest in the discriminatory features of our laws. After having been told the story of the Nisei troops in combat and of the many Issei who served in important war work, the entire sub-committee appeared to be favorably inclined to some revision of the laws, particularly in cases involving those who had contributed to the war effort, Masaoka reported.

Abandonment of Camp Jordan
Perils Community Business

An Associated Press dispatch from Washington, D. C., this week disclosed that Camp George Jordan has been declared surplus and its 116 buildings will be disposed of.

This announcement, although not officially confirmed here, will be felt keenly by Seattle's Japanese community businesses which to date have depended much on the buying power of colored soldiers stationed at the camp.

Whether the community's economic structure will totter under the loss of these free-spending GI's or whether it will continue to thrive on a paying proposition without them is something which will be known within the next few months.

In the meantime, it would be well if the community's various enterprises would learn how to work on a cooperative basis to insure themselves a lasting prosperity.

Calls Evacuation Worst 'Blunder'

The evacuation of persons of Japanese ancestry from the West Coast was the country's worst blunder in civil liberties in World War II, wrote Norman Thomas, noted Socialist party leader, in an article, "What's Right with America," in the current issue of Harper's magazine.

Nothing in World War I, according to Thomas, equalled "this departure from the well-established principles of civil liberty" in the number of persons affected or in its danger as a precedent.

Thomas, who says he would prefer to call the evacuation a "crime" rather than a "blunder," states that the program was on terms "wholly inconsistent with the finest traditions of Anglo-American justice," and that the Supreme Court "unfortunately" went far to validate it.

"But here again it must be recorded," he says, "that most of the evacuees have been allowed to return to their homes; that at the last session of Congress the Senate voted partial monetary compensation for their losses; and that in the November election California voters in a referendum rejected proposals for stiffening the land laws to the hurt of the Japanese American community."

Truman To Talk
On Greek Loan

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 11 — President Truman will address a joint session of congress and the nation at 10 a. m. (Seattle time) Wednesday, March 12, in behalf of a loan to Greece.
$250,000,000 has been discussed

PRESIDENT TRUMAN

As the amount Greece needs from the United States because of Great Britain's decision that it cannot go through with commitments it has made to King George's government at Athens.

Senator Glen H. Taylor, Democrat, Idaho, said today he has been informed that Paul Porter, special United States representative in Greece, has suggested that King George II, be removed from the Greek throne as a prerequisite to any United States aid to that country.

Senator Taft, Republican, Ohio, noted that $50,000,000 of a pending $350,000,000 foreign-relief authorization has been earmarked to provide food for Greece.

Prices of houses in England are now about 150 per cent above pre-war.

PEOPLE IN MINIATURE
'What's a Speech, Mom?'

BY SUE SADA

Quietly Mom slips away from the kitchen where she had put the finishing touches to an early dinner. Fragrant smells, whiffs of Irish stew, curl up the stairway, but Mom's got butterflies in the tummy and food is less than inviting.

Up in front of the dresser, Mom is trying to decide between plain earrings, bright ones, and no earrings at all. The Twineses trail her and track her down (it's really up) to confront her with a most suspicious:

"Where goin', Mom?"
"Meeting..."
"(Mom's hair-do is giving trouble... always does.)"
"Church-meetin'?"
"Yes, Butchie" (Darn that perm!)

"No other one, Mom? Do you always hav'ta go?"
"Yes, Kitten." (If that comb falls out again...!)

"Whatcha goin' to do at the church-meetin', Mom?"
"Make a speech, son..."
"Yeah? What's a speech, Mom?" (Here we go again!)

"A speech is lots of talking in front of people."
"Do you hav'ta talk there, too?"
Well, whatever Butchie meant by his last remark, it didn't sound complimentary. Mom let it pass, and hollered the stair-well for the family to start eating, she wasn't ready yet, and anyway she wasn't hungry. What can you do with butterflies?

Grumbling loudly, the Twineses went down to eat, their comments running like:

"Mommy always has't go to meetin's and meetin's..."
"Yeah... and, Butchie, she wen't a show last time..."
"I never went... just with Big Sister, and there was a pussy and Up Goes Maisie, and lots a' cowboy horses and I don't like it anyway..."

"I do, I LIKE pitcher shows... Mom's goin' to take me the next time."
"Me TOO, Butchie! I'm goin' too, and so there! A-ha-ha!"

"Okay then, but you gotta keep quiet or man's comes to kick you out. That's what Fudge said... he really did..."

"I don't care... and I can laugh, if I wants, cuz Mom said so!"
"But... Kitten... you c'n only laugh when it's over, ever funny... not when the man's goin' to shoot..."

"I know but... well, ne'er mind, Butchie! Mind your own business!"
That's that.

Being in a hurry to get the right bus, Mom naturally rushes around forgetting a lot of things, and the last thing she hears from the Twineses is:

"Will ya get me somethin' nice when you come home, uh?"
The next morning, bright and late, Butchie is still sound asleep. Kitten wakes him up. Downstairs

Mom is having the fourth cup of strong coffee, trying to catch up with the front page news of yesterday's paper. She read the funnies before going to the meeting.

"Mom?"
"Uh?"
"Are ya home? Didya go the meetin'?"

No answer from Mom. Mom's groaning over Palestine, and the prices on the ads. There's a scuffle upstairs, and two pairs of small feet go clattering to the well, why not? ... bathroom. Kitten's pounding on its door:

"Lemme in... hurry up!"
"Wait... I got here first..."
"Ask Mommy, Butchie... you know..."

"Aw no, you ask. You always say I HAF'TA ask. You ask."

Down they come, for breakfast, trailing their bathrobes and sleep not gone from their baby faces. Mom looks up sharply. Twineses retreat:

"Oops... we forgot to wash our tooth... come on..."

Before long they are presentable and ready to eat, but they flidget, and look at one another, and giggle. In pantomime, Butchie points at Kitten, but she shakes her head and points back at him, so he takes up the job:

"Mom?"
"Yes, Butchie?" (Whew! $50 for a hankie?)
"Mom, ja get anythin'...?" (Giggles.)

"Uh? What's that? Get what?"
"You know, something nice like gum..."

"O-oh... well, now let's see. Have you finished your breakfast? How about eating first and asking afterwards?"

"Awright, Mom. Kitten... drink your milk!"
"How 'bout yourself?"
"Do you think so Mom got some chiclets?"

"Kitten, do ya wish for to get two a' them?"
Giggle... and more giggling.

Mom's finished with the state of the nation for yesterday, and as she drains off the cold dregs of coffee in the mug, she grins at the Twineses, causing more giggling. A-ah, nice, lovely, morning-after-the-speech the night before. Yep, had that audience, just

Main Bowl Slates Qualifying Meet

The 1947 "Big 50" city singles bowling championship will be sponsored by the Seattle City Bowling Association and the Seattle Bowling Operators' Association, it was announced Sunday by the Seattle Times.

This competition will distribute some $3,000 in cash prizes to the competitors besides underwriting the cost of the junior rowing program, recently announced by the Seattle Junior Rowing Commission.

Main Bowl, Nisei trundling center, will hold its qualifying tournament on Sunday, April 27. Six will qualify for the finals.

Other alleys which will send keggers to the finals are: Seattle Recreation, Ideal Recreation, Ballard, Greenwood, University Bowl, Empire Bowl, West Seattle Center, Downtown Bowl and Lake City Bowl.

Every bowler in town will have a chance to qualify for the final round of 56, who will roll 30 games "across the house" in the two big downtown kegling emporiums, Seattle and Ideal Recreations.

A kegler must qualify from the house in which he bowls in league play, but out-of-town members of the City Association, such as Auburn pin toppers, may enter any of the above qualifying events. If a bowler isn't attached to a league he shall qualify from a house where he customarily bowls.

Entry fee is $10 per bowler per tournament, but a man may enter in as many tournaments as he is qualified for. There'll be prizes in every qualifying event, based on the number of entries, with the qualifier guaranteed his entry fee into the main event as well as his cut in the prize melon.

The big money will come in the 30-game finals, to be rolled June 7 and 8, as the grand wind-up of the season, after all leagues have settled their championships. The Northwestern International Bowling Congress has completed its stand here, and all Seattle keggers have returned from the American Bowling Congress at Los Angeles.

The alley operators will take charge of "selling" every qualifier to an advertising sponsor at $50 apiece, which swells the prize fund.

Nisei Featured In 'Funfest'

Amateur aspirants of the stage and screen were presented to the pupils of Garfield high school at their annual funfest held on Mar. 6, 7 and 8 in the school auditorium.

"Night and Day," a musical presentation, featured Mits Katayama and Adia Avery in solos. Katayama is well known to the Niseis for his fine voice. Jack Kumagai, ballroom dancer, Marie Horuchi, and Takako Kikuchi were other thespians in the play.

Almost half the women working outside the home in 1914 earned less than $6 per week.

Changes Plans For Nisei Cage Meet In Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 11.—Due to lack of responses, the committee in charge of the national Nisei cage tourney has abandoned its original plans.

Coach Stan Karikomi of Tokuda Drug, Class A basketball titlists, today announced that he will probably take a squad of some twelve players to the Intermountain hoop meet scheduled for March 26, 27 and 28 in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Tokuda's, according to Karikomi, will leave Sunday afternoon, March 23, in a caravan of three automobiles. They will stop in Portland to face the Portland Red Stars and Gresham that night after which they will head for Utah.

and will substitute in place of the national meet the annual Intermountain Basketball Tourney on March 26, 27 and 28, it was learned today.

The Denver Marusho Miks, last year's champions, already have announced their intention to defend their title at this cagefest. The Denver Manchu Rockets also will vie for honors as will teams from Washington, Idaho, Oregon, the Northern Utah JAAU League and the local NAU League will participate in the meet.

Food Center Lacks Vitamins, Loses To Azumano, 3-0

PORTLAND, Ore., March 7.—Azumano Insurance with its strong policy left the Food Center Keglers only dessert in a four-course meal as they were defeated, 3-1, in the Oregon Nisei Bowling League last Friday.

The Insurance men bowled a total of 2488 pins to the Lombard's 2405 series. Tak Akamatsu of Lombard was high in the game with 545.

Blast Troys, 39-23, After Slow 1st Half

Tokuda Drug captured the Class A basketball league championship of Seattle last Friday night by trouncing the Lotus Troys, 39-23, in the Buddhist gym. Very few persons, however, were aware of the battle's importance as the two teams struggled, Tokuda's to clinch the "A" title and the Troys to earn a possible berth in the Northwest tourney.

The winners conducted themselves as moderate titlists in the first half by holding a 21-15 lead but increased their prestige in the final half by breaking through for 15 points to the Troys' tidy 8.

Every member of the Tokuda squad tallied. Shooting seven, Herb Furuta was the only dangerous marksman for the Troys. Isao Nishimura, Troy star, was hand-cuffed to 4 points.

In the evening's curtain-raiser, the U. of W. Coeds received a big 17-point boost from Kimi Shibayama and a 11-point try from Kathy Matsuda to defeat Tacoma, 35-25. Their efforts enabled the Coeds to step out of the girls' league basement. M. Tanabe, Fujimoto and A. Yamamoto were the invaders' best.

The Class B Lotus Spartans pulled another upset when they nosed out Tacoma's Bussels, 16-15. Herb Uyeda, towering Tacoma center, was held to 7 digits by the scrappy victors.

The box scores follow:

FIRST GAME

U. W. Coeds (33)—Kanda 5, Matsuda 11, Shibayama 17, Sakamashi, Hirabayashi, Suzuki, D. Tanabe.

Paraplegic Vet Learns To Fly

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 11.—Although confined to a wheelchair because of wounds received while serving in combat with the famous 442nd Central Postal Directory, a Nisei veteran has refused to be grounded and has learned to fly a plane.

Shigemitsu Suyetani, wounded in Italy, is one of three paraplegic patients at Kennedy Veterans Administration hospital who have been taking flight training from a professional instructor, R. S. Weaver.

HEADPIN'S VIEWS

By SHEWO KAWRYE

HI EVERYONE!
Already we have witnessed two all-star teams of opposite categories pass in review—Now, sliding into the spotlight this week, in conjunction with the information regarding the formation of a girls' summer bowling league, we experience the pleasurable delight in observing . . .

The Class of Feminine Trundlers
More than any other all-star aggregation, the general public found this particular group the hardest to place since there were no leagues requiring the services of the fair damsels. However, here they are, the nucleus around which the forthcoming girls' league could procure in its formation:

The first team—
I. Jo Ann Furtua.
II. Aki Fujino.
III. Margo Namba.
IV. "Sluggie" Fujino.
V. Jean Terao.

On the all-around ability of this team, I would venture to state that its team average, would hover between the 150's and 160's, and all of its members have had the pleasure of boasting 200 games. Here are another five who could easily go in as alternates:

I. Jean Numoto.
II. Tai Tsubota.
III. "Shorty" Noritake.
IV. Toshie Kanazaki.
V. Akia Kuniyuki.

They are, my friends, to the public's reactions—The ten top pin crashers, if they have overlooked any potential luminaries, here are Shewo's hopes that you show them up in the coming girls' bowling league . . .

Due to numerous inquiries, I will reiterate the specific information that I released a few issues back regarding the forthcoming:

First, allow me to introduce the organizer, a personage whom I find has all the qualifications of a fellow worthy of the said position, his interest and love of the game, together with his sense of fair play, patience and personality, is second to none. Incidentally, his league average is second to the first.

For his voluntary contribution to every worthy cause, he has the respect and plaudits of the entire commercial league—Mr. Morris Yamaguchi!

His views were expressed as follows: "Bowling is not confined to men alone as the number of women bowlers is increasing by leaps and bounds each year; it is especially noticeable among the Nisei girls in other cities, however, once you get accustomed to league activities here, I'm sure you will not only enthuse about bowling but will increasingly be adapted to it! The sociability and good fellowship of the bowling alley are the game's strongest appeals. It is a leisure pastime, calling for no violent physical action. There is plenty of time to talk and much opportunity for good fellowship. With that in mind he has set 7 p. m. Thursday, May 1 as the

Seeks Larger Sum For Anti-TB Work

The existing tuberculosis hospital plan will be seriously jeopardized if the Senate confirms the amount included for tuberculosis hospital maintenance in the House-approved Omnibus bill, George D. Anderson, president Anti-Tuberculosis League of King County, warned this week.

A total of $4,800,000 had been requested by the State Health Department as the minimum requirement to maintain existing sanatoria. An appropriation of only $1,000,000 was included in the Omnibus measure.

"This drastic cut of approximately 80 per cent in the request means that it will be impossible to provide hospitalization for many victims of tuberculosis during the next biennium. We cannot afford to take such a backward step in Washington," Anderson said.

If Finland and Morningside were to be run at their present capacity, the proposed reduction would force the closure of the sanatoria within six months, Dr. Emil Palmquist, Director of Public Health, Seattle, informed the League.

He also said there is today a waiting list of over 100 tuberculous patients who cannot be hospitalized because there aren't enough beds and the proposed appropriation would not provide any money for acquiring additional beds, as for instance at the Naval Hospital.

"Tuberculosis is a communicable disease and we have learned through the years that the most effective method of curing it is to provide sanatorium care. The modern surgical treatment for tuberculosis has made the hospital of constantly increasing importance," Anderson explained.

With increased emphasis on finding unknown victims of the disease, more persons are found each week with tuberculosis in the early stages of the disease. When tuberculosis is found early through mass x-ray surveys and the victims are adequately hospitalized the chances for returning a healthy individual to the community as a useful citizen are the greatest, Anderson said.

"Our aim is the eradication of tuberculosis. We know the cause of tuberculosis, how it is spread and how it can be cured. Because sanatoria are needed not only to cure patients but to isolate those who spread tuberculosis, the Anti-Tuberculosis League believes the average community should provide a minimum of three beds per death. To meet that standard Seattle and King County should maintain about 750 sanatorium beds. These standards were established after very careful study of material secured from the American Trudeau Society and the National Tuberculosis Association by the League's Program, Executive Committees and the Board.

"Seattle and King County now have only 574 beds. If we cannot maintain this sub-minimum number with the money voted by the State Legislature we cannot hope, to make much progress against this costly, preventable disease in the near future," according to Anderson.

The county's tax support of the care of tuberculous patients has been set by law at 6/10 of a mill. With the increase cost of food and supplies the counties must look to the State for additional funds to carry on the fight against tuberculosis. It was to fill this need that the State Equalization Fund was set up in 1943 for direct grants-in-aid from the State to counties which could not meet increased costs.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Yasuda of Denver are visiting their parents here.
