Explains Procedure for Recovery Of Yen Deposits in Japanese Banks

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12-Procedure for recovery of yen deposits in Japanese banks was outlined by the Office of Alien Property today, it was reported by the Washington office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee.

In answer to ADC request for information on deposits made in Japanese banks in Japan, Donald Sham, secretary of the Office of Alien, Property, said that claims might be filed with OAP under certain circumstances.

If deposits were made in the Postal Savings bank of Japan or in any bank guranteed by or partly owned by the Japanese government, Sham reported, a debt claim might be filed with the OAP against Japanese government assests taken over by the United States government.

If a deposit was made, however, in a Japanese bank not owned or guaranteed by the Japanese government, a depositor should write dircetly to the bank in Japan for information on the status of the account, it was learned.

The Office of Alien Property would not handle the case in this instance, Sham pointed out, since there would be no assests in the United States toward which the OAP could lodge the claim.

In regard to recovering interest which (accrued during the war years on Japanese government bonds or bonds of private concerns in Japan, Sham announced that claims on these could also be filed with the OAP.

"If in doubt, file a claim," he advised, "and the Office of Alien Property will either allow or disallow the claim."

Deadline for these claims has been extended indefinitely, according to the Federal Register of August 28, but OAP officials requested early filing to facilitate the handling of the claims.

Form APC-1C, Notice of Claim for Payment of Debt, should be sent to the Office of Alien Property, Justice department, Washington, 25, D. C., the Washington ADC office reported.

First Postwar Silk Cargo from Japan JAPAN HOTELS Due in Port of Seattle Sept. 16

As a result of the resumption of trade between the United States and Japan, the American Mail liner Wash. Mail will bring the first postwar shipment of silk goods from Japan next week, it was learned today. The Washington Mail, which sailed from Yokohama September 7, is expected to make the voyage to Seattle in nine days. She is due to dock at Pier 28 next Tuesday, Sept. 16.

Described as piecegoods, the silk totals 224 tons, a very large consignment of cargo of this kind, and is consigned to the United States Commercial Corporation. It will be delivered to an intercoastal steamship line in Seattle for transportation to New York.

Besides the silk goods, the incoming vessel will have 254 tons (1,550 cases) of Japanese porcelain, also for New York, and 500,000 feet of hardwood logs from the Philippines. Some of the logs may go to Columbia River ports, but all of the other cargo will be discharged in Seattle.

PUBLIC'S VIEWPOINT ON PEN-SION OR COMPENSATION-ENVY, JEALOUSY OR TOLERANCE????

Occasionally we run into disabled veterans who are receiving a pension, or rather compensation. And when the course of the conversation runs here and there and everywhere else, it invariably ends up with the public opinion. In typical community style, one runs into individuals who pat you on the back and claim that you deserve FORGET IT!!! more than a 10% disability rating, or that you should be rated 100% but just as soon as one is out of sight these persons would rather see some poor ole ex-GI's selling apples for 5 cents at 6th and

It's true that the majority believes that some form of pension should be given in a fair unbiased way to those deserving of it such as; vets with loss of limb, or blindness, chronic disease, paralytic cases and minor unrepairable injuries. However, the ugly cloud of jealousy lurks around the corner in a few spots. These few just don't seem to give a dam what happens to anyone when they should take a little time to figure just how fortunate they are in living in their homes. They ought to picture the plight of the Japanese in Canada. If the Canadian Nisei did have the chance and opportunity to serve in W.W. II on a mass scale, the picture North of the Border would be different.

Money is hard to get and it flows | siognomist. through your fingers like water. This process is true with all of us. When a few individuals get a ten minute break to think things over they can't help but envy disabled vets whe are receiving 60, 70, 80 or 100 bucks a month. They think it's gravy. People who think it's gravy ought to realize that it's not. As time goes on, disabled vets will get their original amount cut. The cutting goes deep and and W. W. I vet will tell you. In due time the majority of the boys will be wiped off the books. A pension is given in order to help reinstate a vet into normal life. Some cases will run into years and in others but for a short time. The rating board with medical reports hands down the decision. Curiosity among the Issei folks

The Insurance Teams Are Out in Front

We are still in the first frame of the young season in the Nisei bowling leagues in Seattle, but, from this corner, it seems as if the two insurance outfits-Karikomi Insurance and Sakahara Insurance—are dead serious about winning their respective league championships along with the "moola" that goes with them as prizes.

For sure, Karikomi's five is very much THE outstanding team in the City Merchants loop. Tom Hidaka. Kerry Yasunobu, Junks Ikeda, Tuck Tada and Pancho Nakashima for a quintet which should give any Nisei kegling team a busy evening making all the spares and strikes count.

Tied for first laurels in the faster Commercial circuit is Sakahara's gang. Its Kenny Oyama, Rik Tanagi, Herb Furuta, Shig Okada, and Shoichi Suyama are doing a fine job of keeping Sakahara's insured in the upper berth in the league ladder. To date, it is no secret that Sakahara's keglers are bowling "way over their heads"; they, however, may make us eat those words and continue their dizzy pace.

The progress which these two insurance teams make in the next month or so should tell us whether they're as good as they're bowling today.

Posting a hot 2681 series, Sakahara Insurance last Tuesday night took Oriental Cab for a rough ride in a Nisei Commercial Bowling League match in Main Bowl. The men with the insured pitching arms, all passing the 500 mark, walloped the cabbies, 4-0. Especially sharp for Sakahara's were Ken Oyama with a 556, Herb Furuta with a 543 and Shig Okada with a 545. Oyama fired a 221 in his final game. Cliff Goon, Oriental Cab's anchor man, was the only effective kegler for the losers as he managed to chalk up a 510 ser-

The clean 4-0 sweep pushed Sakahara's into a first-place tie with the tough Kashiwagi's Tailors.

Kashiwagi's, in the meantime, decisioned Paramount Cafe, 3-1, in a contest which found Manabu Fujino of the winners shooting an almost tailor-made 192-192-194 for a 578, high of the night. Tommy Namba, also of Kashiwagi's, followed Fujino closely with 181-180-195.

Paramount Cafe carned its one geme when Tak Asaba found his eye and pounded the tenpins for a 242 in the last session.

Morrie Yamaguchi and Willie Maebori were heroes as far as the Puget Sound Vegetable Growers Association is concerned. The pair's better-than-500 series helped the Sumner force produce a 4-0 shutout victory over 12th Ave. Service. Yamaguchi's 245 in the second was high singles game during the entire league play. Taiji Takayoshi, also an expert bowler, came up with a 239 mark in his final attempts! on the alley for the vanquished. Takayoshi finished with a 542 ser-

Shinty Inn measured Tad's Cafe for a 3-1 triumph but not until the two squads had rolled an extra frame in the third game. The Inn-ers pulled "in" on Tadao Shibuya's two sizzling strikes.

George Kimura, Shanty Inn's anchor roller, had another bright series, a 571. Kimura sent the spheroid into the 1-3 pocket for 194-178-199.
