

JACL-ADC OPENS TALKS FOR EARLY REVOCATION OF LABOR VISA ORDER

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 31—Negotiations looking forward to an early revocation of the executive order of March 14, 1907, which prohibits Japanese and Korean laborers bearing passports for Hawaii, Canada, or Mexico from entering the continental United States for permanent residence, have been opened by the Washington office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee.

Finding out that continued application of the order to alien Japanese residents of Hawaii subjects them to discriminatory treatment and to extra hardships not generally faced by the Issei on the mainland, the JACL ADC has asked officials of both Justice and Interior Departments to use their good offices in obtaining presidential repeal of the act.

Mike Masaoka, national legislative director of the JACL ADC, who has been carrying on the negotiations, contends that conditions have changed radically since the order was put into effect 31 years ago and that the purpose for which the proclamation was issued is no longer applicable.

He recalled that President Theodore Roosevelt had issued the order to prevent the influx of unassimilated Japanese immigrants into the United States, adding that such a directive was ordered when it was found that Japanese laborers, both skilled and unskilled, armed with visas for Mexico, Canada, and Hawaii, were coming into the continental United States to the detriment of labor conditions here.

Today, conditions are different, Masaoka said, emphasizing that since 1924 there has been no immigration of Japanese laborers either to the mainland or to Hawaii and that the fears of West Coast interests that the Japanese would "over-run" their States no longer are valid. He further stressed that almost all of them have citizen sons or daughters, many of whom have migrated to the mainland, and that this order imposes a grave hardship as they are not allowed to establish on the mainland anything more than temporary residence.

Fresh difficulties have also arisen in recent months, Masaoka declares, as a result of the tightening by immigration officials of laws governing the residence of temporary visitors to the United States. Deportation proceedings have been instituted against at least four Issei from Hawaii, the immigration officials refusing to extend their permits, although all of them have had their stays extended from year to year for the last ten or more years. All these aliens are advanced in age and rely upon their children for support. None of them has a home to go to in Hawaii.

In December, as a result of the intervention of Masaoka and the JACL ADC, a private bill was introduced into the Lower House by Delegate Joseph R. Farrington to cancel deportation proceedings against the four Issei: Shinkichi Shimizu, 79; Mrs. Haru Toyama, 74; and Mr. and Mrs. Juiro Muranaka, 76 and 72, respectively. Each of them was legally admitted into Hawaii and is a long-time resident.

Pending disposition of this bill these four aged Japanese aliens will enjoy the privilege of remaining with their children on the mainland, but Masaoka declares the situation will remain unsolved until the 1907 order is canceled or modified. This incongruous situation which in effect restricts the free flow of persons between Hawaii and the mainland has been brought to the attention of many Congressmen besides Farrington.

Group to Help Nisei GI Dead Burial Picked

Yoshito Fujii of N. P. Hotel this week was elected temporary chairman of a committee which will discuss plans for burial and services for Nisei GI war dead. The group also plans to study the erection of a monument to honor the Japanese American war heroes.

First official meeting of the committee will be held from 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 3, in the Seattle Buddhist temple.

Besides Fujii, others selected on the group are Toru Sakahara, English recording secretary, and Paul T. Onodera, Japanese recording secretary.

Two representatives, one Nisei and one Issei, from each organization in Seattle and vicinity, will be invited to the Feb. 3 gathering. All organizations are welcome, according to Fujii.

Fifty-three were present at the initial, informal gathering in the Buddhist temple.

Oregon Solon Enthusiastic On Statehood

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 31—Enthusiastic reactions of Senator Guy Gordon, R., Oreg., to question on Hawaii statehood seem to indicate a possibility for a Senate vote on the statehood bill this session, reported the Nichi Bei Times of San Francisco.

Senator Gordon passed through San Francisco recently following a nine-day survey of Hawaii.

He wanted to know how successful was Hawaii's "melting pot"—the intermingling without discrimination of the racial groups. His conclusion:

"In the Hawaiian Islands the people of a dozen different nationalities have developed a racial tolerance, a harmonizing of various antecedents ideologies, religions—and shades of color, unequalled anywhere."

A bill authorizing Hawaii statehood has already passed the House of Representatives.

Senator Gordon is head of the subcommittee which is preparing a report. He said meetings will be resumed Feb. 1.

All-girl Orchestra To Play for YW Shindig

Berrell Dinetz's all-girl orchestra will play for the Cosmopolitan's special Valentine Dance, "The Heart Beats", on Saturday evening, February 14th, in the lounge of the Young Women's Christian Association, at Fifth and Seneca, from 8:30 until 11:30 p.m. There will be a floor show during the intermission with Sergeant Eddie Gilbert of Fort Lawton performing some intricate tap dancing and Sergeant Charles Morn on hand with popular songs. The public is invited to the dance, which is informal. Admission is 50 cents. This is a Red Feather service.

The act authorized the President to bar Japanese immigrants whenever he was "satisfied" that passports issued by the Japanese Government to its citizens to go to Hawaii, Mexico or Canada are "being used for the purpose of enabling the holders thereof to come to the continental territory of the United States to the detriment of labor conditions therein."

The president took cognizance of Congressional action and issued his order on March 14. Since that time holders of passports for Hawaii have been allowed to come to the United States only on temporary visitors' permits good for one year. The immigration authorities, however, had up until recently been renewing these permits. This problem does not affect residents of Hawaii who have passports drawn originally for the continental United States.

NO REHEARING IS EXPECTED IN OYAMA CASE

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 31—A request for a rehearing on the Oyama case and to seek a definite decision on the constitutionality of the California alien land law will probably not be made at this time.

Although further discussions by parties involved may alter future plans, it was disclosed by Joe Masaoka, regional JACL Anti-Discrimination committee director, that at present all legal experts associated with the JACL-ADC in this case favor acceptance of the recent decision on the case as final.

In separate opinions, Dean Acheson, Charles A. Horsky and Ernest W. Jennes, all of Washington, D. C., A. L. Wirin and Saburo Kido of Los Angeles, James C. Purcell, William E. Ferriter and Guy C. Caiden, all declared that the purpose of carrying the case to the U. S. supreme court was fulfilled by the decision, Masaoka said.

However, it was learned that Wirin is in San Francisco to confer with the three local attorneys and a definite statement is believed to be forthcoming shortly.

Under the U. S. supreme court's Oyama decision, Nisei legally own land given to them by their alien parents. If the court had ruled the law unconstitutional, alien Japanese who are still "ineligible to citizenship" could have bought land. Four judges stated they thought the law invalid, but five votes were needed to set aside the statute.

A rehearing must be sought before Feb. 9 when the present decision becomes final, it was learned.

Calif. Clears Issei Title

SANTA ROSA, Calif., Jan. 31—An order clearing the title of Katsukuma Uyeda of Sebastopol to property owned by him was issued recently by Superior Judge Hilliard Comstock of Sonoma county in Santa Rosa.

Uyeda, through his attorney, Jerome Sapiro of San Francisco, filed the disclaimer suit against the state of California.

After a full study of the case, the state attorney general's office filed a disclaimer of interest in behalf of the state under which the state declares it has no intention of ever seeking to escheat the property.

Social Aides Invite Masaoka To Conclave

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 31—Mike Masaoka, national legislative director of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee, has accepted an invitation to speak before the national conference of Social Work 75th anniversary meeting of the National Conference of Social Work to be held at Atlantic City, New Jersey, during the week of April 17-23. He is expected to read a paper at one of the principal sessions on April 21. The subject matter has not been determined.

Masaoka's address is being sponsored by three organizations which have an active interest in the welfare of persons of Japanese ancestry in this country: the Common Council for American Unity, American Federation of International Institutes, and the National Council on Naturalization and Citizenship.

His scheduled appearance before the national conference will mark the third occasion since 1942 that a Nisei speaker has been invited to attend. Last year Mas Satow, acting national secretary of the JACL, spoke before a section panel. In 1942 both Masaoka and George Inagaki, then special JACL representative, spoke at the conference which was held in New Orleans. The national conference represents the leading immigrant welfare and social work agencies in the United States.

A just and reasonable modesty does not only recommend eloquence, but sets off every great talent which a man can be possessed of. ## Andy's Friends Raise $3,130.93 for 'Blue Box'

POLICY DUE ON CALIF. LAND CASES

(Nichi Bei Times Dispatch)

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 31—An announcement of policy of pending alien land law escheat cases as a result of the recent Oyama case decision by the U. S. supreme court in Washington, D. C., is expected momentarily from Fred N. Howser, state attorney general, it was learned here.

In Los Angeles, A. L. Wirin, who directed the successful fight for Fred Oyama and his legal associates filed three motions asking Howser to determine future policy on these cases.

The Takaye Fukuhara and James Sakamoto escheat proceedings are set now for hearing on Feb. 9 at San Luis Obispo before Judge Ray B. Lyon. In both cases, title to the property was taken by alien parents in the name of minor children as in the Oyama case.

The third, the Toramy Enomoto case, involved title not taken in the name of a minor citizen child. The hearing is scheduled for Feb. 6 in Santa Ana before Judge Raymond Thompson.

In Fresno, Deputy District Attorney Arthur H. Drew who has worked on all the local escheat cases declared he will await policy instructions from Howser before proceeding with pending suits.

Legal opinion there was that the 15 pending suits, involving approximately 750 acres valued at from $500,000 to $750,000, may be thrown out of court, according to the Fresno Bee.

Several cases were settled last year through compromise and over $40,000 were paid by Nisei land holders. The Bee said it was regarded as questionable whether those who have made settlements can legally recover any of the money.

Superior Court Judge Ernest Klette, who recently decided three cases in favor of the state, said he is "inclined to think the U. S. supreme court decision will knock out all the suits now pending."

In Stockton, however, it was reported that the eight San Joaquin county escheat proceedings were not affected by the Oyama decision. Five suits are now pending in the county courts, another in a Sacramento federal court and two others are ready for filing, according to James Harkins of the county district attorney's office.

Y-Teens to Give 'The Parlor Story'

Y-Teens, the junior members of the Young Women's Christian Association, are sponsoring the February 13th performance of "The Parlor Story" at the Repertory theater. Proceeds will be used to send the All City Inter-Club Council to the Seabeck Leadership Training conference in August. Tickets may be obtained from any Y-Teen member or by calling Elizabeth Lovsted at Rainier 6557.

Pauline Yee is president of the All-City Interclub council which will hold its next meeting in Eagle-Son Hall at 4 p.m. Friday, Feb. 13 to discuss "How Prejudices Are Born". Following dinner at 6 p.m., the group will attend "The Parlor Story" in the Repertory theater.

Seattle Y-Teens are also planning to attend the Y-Teen State Mid-winter conference at Bellingham, Washington on Feb. 21 and 22. Joanne Hamstrom and Darlene Kelley will represent Seattle on the Planning Council. Irma Betcher, YWCA teenage executive, is the Y-Teen adviser.

Seattle Y-Teens have many service projects. They regularly visit the teen-agers in the Orthopedic wing of Swedish hospital. They have given money to the Cancer fund and the Spastic society. They have sent CARE packages to Europe and other parcels of food and clothing over-seas. They help build international good will through correspondence with teen agers in foreign countries.

Funds for Andy's Blue Box reached a grand total of $3,130.93 when contributions toward a new private bus for the Rev. Emery E. Andrews were added up this week. The total includes $2,616.00 which was received through Andy's Friends Committee and $514.93 which was sent to the Japanese Baptist Church.

Grant Beppu, chairman of Andy's Friends Committee, revealed that $2,616.00 were received through the Committee's headquarters at Kashiwagi's during the drive which ended on Dec. 22, 1947. The money was turned over to the Baptist pastor last Friday by Mrs. Masaru Uno, treasurer of the group.

Beppu said that out of a total of 377 contributions State of Washington led all other states with 311 contributors. Seattle made up the largest amount in the state with 295.

Out-of-state contributions came from 17 states, which included California, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Missouri, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania and Utah. Alaska and Hawaii were also represented.

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Jan. 31—In an editorial on the Oyama case under the heading, "Alien Land Law Jolted", the San Francisco Chronicle this week declared:

"The ground under racial discrimination by land grows narrower and narrower."
"For the sake of the general battle against racial discrimination in the United States, it is good to hear the supreme court resting on the 'equal protection clause,' it concluded,

NVC MEETING

Plans for the forthcoming memorial ceremony in honor of Nisei war dead whose bodies are being returned to this country, were discussed at the Nisei Veterans Committee meeting held on Wednesday, January 28th.

It was announced that the NVC is soliciting contributions on a voluntary basis from all Nisei veterans to be used for the memorial services and, if possible, for a suitable monument.

Commander Jimmy Mar of the Cathy Post was present at the meeting, and his remarks were heard with a great deal of interest. In behalf of the Chinese veterans, he offered the help of his organization toward honoring the Nisei war heroes.

Watch for N. W. Times' Tourney Data

Sometime this week-end, a select group of four or five, or perhaps six, persons will be called upon by THE NORTHWEST TIMES to formulate plans for this year-old newspaper's second annual Northwest Nisei Invitational Basketball Tournament which is booked for February 20, 21 and 22 in Seattle.

The basketball brains, headed by T. R. Goto, will choose the squads which will be asked to participate in the three-day event, disclose a rough draft of the tournament schedule, and send out letters of invitation to the various teams.

In all probability, the cage bigwigs will ask a "name" figure to present the awards, which include a perpetual three-year trophy won last year by Tokuda Drug, at the Sun., Feb. 22 dance. Robert Morris, famous Washington athletic figure and presently county auditor, did the honors in the last meet.

Whatever is in store, one can expect another great tourney.

...Seattle's trundlers fear the troublesome Hollywood Alleys in Portland more than they do the competition they will be facing in the Oregon Nisei Classic next month... Len Stevens, in charge of intramural sports at UW, is looking forward to reviving wrestling at the U, and, from what we understand, he is interested in finding some Nisei lightweights... wonder if there will be any Nisei slugging it out for the Northwest Golden Gloves honors?... burly Maki Kaizumi who moved his husky frame into Northwest Nisei Classic in Main Bowl recently with a frightening average and disappointed us, is back in the groove for Main Appliance in Salt Lake City, Utah; Kaizumi is blitzkriegering the maples for 178 in the teams and 192 in the doubles... unlike George Tokuda who sponsors a winning basketball team, Bain Chiba of Main Drug has a squad which has suffered unlucky breaks throughout the season; Chiba, however, is very much popular with the fellows who play under the "Main Drug" banner...

TAD'S ALMOST TAKE 4 FROM KASHIWAGI'S

NISEI COMMERCIAL LEAGUE STANDINGS

(As of Jan. 27)

Team	W	L
Kashiwagi's	61	27
Shanty Inn	50	38
Paramount Cafe	48	40
Tad's Cafe	48	40
Sakahara Insurance	44	44
P.S.V.G.A.	38	50
Oriental Cab Inc.	36	52
12th Ave. Service	27	61

Results in Brief
Oriental Cab 4, 12th Ave. Service 0
P.S.V.G.A. 3, Sakahara Insurance 1
Shanty Inn 3, Paramount Cafe 1
Tad's Cafe 3, Kashiwagi's 1

Tad's Cafe came within a pin of dunking Kashiwagi's four times in the defeat column of the Nisei Commercial League last Tuesday night in Main Bowl. Tad's won, 3-1, losing its one by a pin in the third.

Roy Fujiwara's 200 in the third figured strongly in Kashiwagi's salvaging the one-pin triumph. Bill Inashi, Tom Hirai and Shig Sumioka led the cafe assault.

Shanty Inn decided Paramount Cafe, 3-1, in a low, pin-tumbling match. Tak Shibuya's 550, which included a 202, was high for the victors. Bill Tanaka of Paramount wrapped a 210 around his 520 series.

Usually strike-shy Min Koga boomed out with an explosive 577 series, including a 217 and a 201, but his 12th Ave. Service team was blanked four-zero by Oriental Cab. Wally Poy, leadoff man, carried the burden for the cabbies with a 547.

Puget Sound Vegetable Growers Association had little trouble knocking over Sakahara Insurance, 3-1, on Morrie Yamaguchi and Willie Maebori's 500-plus series. Ken Oyama and Rick Tanagi, the trundling "item", rolled 548 and 507 respectively for Sakahara's. Oyama poked the "pocket" for the night's high 232 game.

Greenhouse Five Drops Eighth In Row in 'A' Cage Battle; WWG's Walk over Chinese Girls

The best things in life—including a casaba victory—may be free but not for the winless Greenhouse quintet of the NVC-sponsored Class A basketball league. Greenhouse dropped its eighth straight "A" cage game last Wednesday night in the Buddhist auditorium when its men bowed to Mentor Harold Horluchi's Mercury charges, 37 to 19.

Greenhouse put up a fight in the first half, trailing Mercury by a 15-17 count. In the final half, however, Mercury turned on the proverbial heat to win going away. Ray Otani was the sparkplug of the Mercury push.

In the opener, tall Betty Jean Andrews tossed in 18 points through the iron ring to lead title-contending WWG's to a smashing 29-14 triumph over the Chinese girls. Miss Andrews had Naoko Hasegawa and Helen Yamamoto helping in the scoring. Pauline Yee with 6 points was okay for the losers.

Rugged South End Merchant Blues, behind 15-20, at the half, finished their Class A struggle strong in the final period to nose out Main Drug, 32-30. The Blues' Pat Hagiwara fired 10 points. Heat Heyamoto of Main Drug had 8.
