Top Court in Nation to Rule On Validity of Calif. Fish Code Barring 'Ineligible Aliens'

WASHINGTON, D. C. March 24—The United States Supreme Court has agreed to rule on the validity of the California Fish and Game Code which bars the issuance of commercial fishing licenses to Japanese aliens ineligible for citizenship, the Washington office of the JACL Anti-Discrimination Committee reported today. The high court has granted a writ of certiorari in the Takahashi alien fishing case which is to test the constitutionality of the California law.

The national Japanese American Citizens League which is supporting the petitioner, Torao Takahashi, a Los Angeles Issei fisherman, has already secured a commitment from the Attorney General's office that it will enter a friend of the court brief in the case. Takahashi is appealing from a 4 to 3 decision of the California Supreme Court which upheld the State Fish and Game Commission in its wartime denial of commercial fishing licenses to "ineligible aliens."

Attorneys for the petitioner, A. L. Wirin legal counsel for the JACL and counsel for the Southern California Japanese Fishermen's Association; Dean Acheson, former Undersecretary of State; Charles A. Horsky and Ernest W. Jennes of Washington, D. C., are expected to argue that Section 990 of the California statute of 1945 violates the equal protection of the laws and due process of the laws under the U. S. Constitution, and that insofar as the California law applies to fishing on the high seas and in waters off the coast of California, it is in conflict with the authority of the U. S. over, and federal policy with respect to, fisheries on the high seas and on coastal waters.

The Supreme Court's action in granting the writ is its second within a year involving persons of Japanese ancestry. The first was in the Oyama case which was decided two months ago. The case is expected to be heard this year, possibly during the spring term.

Besides the Attorney General, the Congress of Industrial Organizations and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People filed briefs with the court urging it to consider the case. The amicus curiae briefs all stressed that substantial constitutional issues of national importance are involved in the Takahashi case.

Takahashi has been engaged in commercial fishing since 1915. In October 1945 the California game commission refused to issue him a license because of provisions of Section 990 of the Fish and Game Code.

Girl Places First In Poster Test

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., March 24—A Easter Seal poster designed by Bettie Sakaguchi 14, of 1539 Julia St., Berkeley took first place in a statewide contest and will now be entered in a national contest, it was announced here.

The winning poster in the finals will be used on the Easter Seal for the 1950 Crippled Children fund campaign.

Code. In 1943, this section was amended to explicitly prohibit Japanese aliens from fishing in coastal waters. This was amended again in 1945 to apply only to those "aliens ineligible to citizenship," the change being made as an obvious effort to make the prohibition constitutional.

VOICE SUPPORT FOR ADC BILL

RENO, Nevada, March 24—Prominent Nevada citizens were interviewed and requested to support the naturalization of Purple Heart parents and Gold Star parents, and the extension of authority to the U. S. Attorney General to stay deportation in meritorious cases during the recent March 1 through 3 trip of West Coast ADC Director Joe Grant Masaoka.

This itinerary was undertaken concurrently with a similar trip by Sam Ishikawa, ADC Eastern Representative, into West Virginia where the constituents of Senator Chapman Revercomb, Chairman, Senate Standing Subcommittee on Immigration and Naturalization, were contacted. The other member of the committee is Senator Pat McCarran of Nevada, whose supporters were reached by Masaoka in Reno so that the desirability of JACL-ADC measures would be pointed out by the citizens of Nevada to their senior Senator.

Persons contacted included His Excellency Thomas K. Gorman, Roman Catholic Bishop of Nevada; Father George Eagleton; Joseph F. McDonald, editor Nevada State Journal; Miles N. Pike, U. S. Attorney; William J. Kane, McCarran's law partner and former director of immigration service for Nevada; Pete Peterson, postmaster; Edward Ransom, U. S. Marshal.

Rev. Charles Dohn, chairman of the Reno Ministerial Alliance; Rev. J. Edward Oslund, Lutheran Church; Rt. Rev. William F. Lewis, Bishop, Episcopal Church; J. E. Martie, Adjutant, American Legion; Brian Burt, Departmental Commander, American Legion; Rev. Don S. Fleming, First Methodist Church; Louis Hilbert, Methodist Church; Clarence Marshall, Executive Secretary YMCA.

Those with whom discussions were held indicated their willingness to urge their congressional representative to support this manifestly required legislation.

Regional representatives of the JACL-ADC stationed in various parts of the country are likewise making similar tours so that a representative national opinion can be developed on the need for JACL-ADC legislative measures.

LOCAL CHURCHES TO MARK EASTER

Seattle's Japanese Christian churches will commemorate Christ's resurrection this Easter Sunday, March 28, with services and programs.

Japanese Methodist church announced that its congregation will have a Sunday School Easter program from 10 a.m. and a joint Easter service from 11 a.m. In the Easter rites, the junior and Nisei choirs directed by Yae Kimura and Kazuko Osawa, a special solo by Mrs. Minnie Itoi, sermons by the Rev. T. J. Machida and the Rev. Lester Suzuki, and a baptismal service will be held.

The Methodist also has booked an egg-coloring party for the night of March 26 with Junko Kumazaka in charge. An Easter egg hunt for children will be from 2:30 p.m. Saturday March 27.

The Japanese Baptist church, where the Rev. Emery Andrews is pastor, an Easter play will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, March 28 in the auditorium. Cast in the play, directed by Chihp Sakura, will be Margaret Nomura, Mieko Hirano, Mich Inouye, Mary Okazaki, Fumi Matsumoto, Edna Mayeda, Tomi Kunitugu, Marian Tamura, Shiz Tsuji and Irene Hikida.

Other churches such as St. Peter's, Congregational, Maryknoll and Presbyterian also will mark Easter Sunday.

FUNDS TO URGE LAW EXCLUDED

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 24—In an interview with JACL-ADC Director Joe Grant Masaoka, Roland A. Vandegrift, Legislative Auditor, disclosed that Governor Earl Warren's Budget for the Fiscal Year July 1, 1948 to June 30, 1949, submitted to the California Legislature contains no provision for the enforcement of the Alien Land Law, either in the items under the Attorney General's office, or a separate appropriation.

When questioned whether there was any explanation for the deletion of this item in his "Analysis of the Budget Bill" Vandegrift declared, "The Oyama case went against us and we are making no request for monies with which to enforce the Alien Land Act."

He did admit that while there were no pending measures on this subject, the possibility existed for a special appropriation or an amendment to the Budget Bills which are before the senate and the assembly. It is expected that the Legislature will be in session until the end of the month, wrestling with the near-billion dollar budget and special urgency bills which have been screened by the joint clearing committee of both houses.

In his testimony before the assembly ways and means committee last spring, Vandegrift urged the $65,000 item in the department of justice budget to enforce the Alien Land Law on the basis that the precedent for special appropriations on this matter had been established in the 1945 Legislature. He further contended that while the law was on the books it ought to be enforced particularly in view of the wartime hearings which assertedly revealed purported violations of the Alien Land Law in many localities.

Masaoka established contacts with members of the Legislature so that any attempts to incorporate appropriations to enforce the concededly outdated Alien Land Law would be resisted with all the resources of the JACL-ADC West coast office.

HERE THEY ARE—Above are "Mr. Nisei Teen", Tommy Deguchi, one of Class A Mercury's promising cage players, and "Miss Nisei Teen", Takae Tanino, a Gardfield high school lass. Miss Tanino was selected in a recent contest co-sponsored by the Lotus Anandas and the Belle Amis, and Deguchi, at a coronation dance held by the Seattle Chicks last Saturday night in the Buddhist auditorium.

Chicagoan Invited To Canada Parley

CHICAGO, Ill., March 24—Dr. Randolph Mas Sakada, national vice-president of the JACL, will be guest speaker at the national conference of the Japanese Canadian Citizens' Association (JCCA) at Winnipeg, Canada, on March 26-29, announced the Midwest Regional Office this week.

In accepting the invitation of Roger Obata, president of the JCCA, Dr. Sakada said he was both honored and happy to meet with its leaders and hoped to share the experiences of his own organization with them. The JCCA is the Canadian parallel of JACL.

Pre-School Children Get Guidance, Attention at Broadway Nursery

Thirty-three attentive children, ranging in ages from 2 to 6 years listen to such stories as "The Little Black Sambo," "Tody's House," and "Bobby Had a Nickel," during the story hour at the Broadway Nursery School, 162 Broadway. There, pre-school children, most of whom are Japanese Americans, receive careful attention and guidance every day, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m.

The Broadway Nursery School has been operating under the direction of the Japanese Baptist Church since October of 1946. The present director is Mrs. Isako Koba.

The daily schedule runs something like this for the little tots:

9-10 a.m.—Free play.
10-11 a.m.—Group divided into two classes, with one-half hour of singing and stories, and one-half hour of supervised play.
11-11:30 a.m.—Free play.
11:30-12:30 p.m.—Lunch
12:30-2:30 p.m.—Free play.
2:30-3:30 p.m.—Free play.

Mrs. Koba is a 1947 graduate of the University of Washington department of nursery school and child development. Assisting are Masako Tada, a graduate of Ballard high school; Sally Onishi, a graduate of Hunt high school; and Mrs. Mutsu Homma, pianist.

"What we try to do here is to develop the idea of playing together with other children," Mrs. Koba said. "They are taught to share the toys with others, and wait their turn if the toys that they want are being used by other children."

During their supervised play period, the children learn to use the scissors, to color and paste, and to play with such toys as tinkler toys.

Before the "Blue Box" was wrecked in a collision with the city transit trolley, the Rev. Emery Andrews, pastor of the Japanese Baptist Church, made his tour of the community every morning, picking up the children at their homes, and distributing them again to their homes after school. The nursery school children are all waiting anxiously for Andy's new "Blue Box" which had been ordered about two months ago and its delivery expected "sometime" this month.

MONEY TO FIGHT NISEI REVEALED

SACRAMENTO, Calif., March 24

—In a scrutiny of the accounting items listed under the Department of Justice financial statements, as compiled in the California Budget for the Fiscal Year July 1, 1948 to June 30, 1949, Henry Taketa, Nisei attorney and JACL-ADC legislative consultant, and Joe Grant Masaoka, West Coast ADC Director, discovered the use of funds allotted to the Attorney General's office for enforcement of the Alien Land Law were used in considerable portion for "secret investigations" which they termed "nothing but plain Gestapo searches directed only against the Nisei property owners."

The financial statements revealed that out of $44,581 expended for Alien Land Law enforcement in the period 1946-1947, $24,212 was used in "secret investigations."

In 1947-48, out of a total of $75,180 estimated by the Department of Justice as used in prosecuting the Alien Land Law, $52,000 is listed as "secret investigation."

Much of this money has been described as used in making widespread investigations to be used in the filings of escheat suits. It is believed by the West Coast JACL-ADC office and the Civil Rights Defense Union of Northern California that more numerous filings had been held up pending the recent Supreme Court decision in the Oyama case.

In the approach to the systematic escheat program to be directed against all Japanese American property owners, residential and agricultural, large-scale maps of California had been prepared in which pinpointed represented Nisei landholders. These maps are reminiscent of similar surveys showing the Japanese population density and location compiled as arguments for evacuation. Detail maps enumerating the acreage of Nisei farmers and the location of Nisei homes in the urban areas have been drafted. Reference marks are used to designate complete files and information on all those of Japanese ancestry occupying any property.

Taketa and Masaoka are maintaining contacts with the California Legislature to oppose any revival of the Alien Land Law enforcement program now believed to be quiescent.

Total Shy of $9,000 by Thirty-five Cents; Co-Treasurer Fujii Predicts NWMC Will Collect $9,500 by This Week-end

No "iron curtain" prevailed in Seattle, its vicinity, and distant points from which people contributed toward the Nisei War Memorial Committee's fund-raising drive to help honor the GI dead with memorial services and a suitable monument.

In an open announcement, the NWMC reported as of Tuesday, March 23 that $8,999.65 have been collected. The goal was $5,000.

Possibilities that $9,500 may be solicited before the end of this week were forecast by co-treasurer Hisako Fujii of the NWMC. Heitaro Hikida is keeping the books straight with Fujii.

Seed Oysters Due From Japan

Acquiring of 31,864 boxes of seed oysters, holding a potential 318,640,000 young oysters from Japan was announced early this week by the officials of the Pacific Coast Oyster Growers' Association here.

The shipments will begin arriving on American Mail Line vessels next week and will continue at intervals throughout April and May.

Of the total, only 850 boxes are destined for California. The remainder will be distributed along the Washington and Oregon coasts, in Puget Sound and British Columbia.

The seed was acquired from Japan's Board of Trade under the supervision of the economic division of the occupation command. The entire shipment was assembled in Sendai Bay, Japan.

Last year, a total of 56,589 boxes was imported in an effort to make up seed stocks depleted during the war. A normal peacetime import is between 20,000 and 25,000 boxes.

Today's Sign of the Times

Remember back in '42, '43, '44, and even as late as '45?

Prospects of our ever returning to our homes on the Pacific Coast were dimmer than the prospects of the Axis powers winning the war.

Today, thousands of Japanese Americans, their kin and their friends are home, and we should thank the Nisei veterans for the happy movement back to the land whence we came.

The Nisei veterans, serving in the armed forces and the military intelligence, posted a remarkable service record, unapproachable in the annals of the U. S. Army.

To show our appreciation to the vets, the Nisei War Memorial Committee was formed.

And to prove to the vets that we were sincere, the friends and citizens of Seattle, its vicinity and distant points contributed thousands of dollars toward a fund which will be used to pay for expenses involved in memorial services and a permanent monument for the GI war dead.

The fund the Nisei War Memorial Committee has raised—$8,999.65 as of Tuesday, March 23—should go quite far in the plans laid out for the deceased servicemen.

THE NORTHWEST TIMES, in its March 17 edition, forecast that the strenuous fund-raising drive may hit $9,000.

The pleasant question today is: Can we make it $9,500?

All dollar signs point to that possibility, and that is today's "sign of the times."

The city of Hiroshima is planning to send 21-year-old Yasuye Sumi as "Miss Hiroshima" to tour the United States. Miss Sumi, Tokyo reports, will be a symbol of the beauty of the new Hiroshima that is being resurrected from the debris of atom-bombed destruction. If some of the lovely Japan war brides who passed our port are examples of Nippon beauties, Miss Hiroshima should be out of this world.

Washington, D. C. is rejoicing because its famed Japanese cherry trees will be in full bloom for Easter. And to think that some of its citizens wanted to chop them down at the start of the Second World War because they, which were presented to the U. S. as a token of friendship, were of Japanese origin.

Silken Dictatorship

The essence of a dictatorship is that you take it whether you like it or not. And that sums up the New Look.

The men don't like it. Questionnaires, debates, male-tested fashion shows disclose almost 100% masculine distaste for the limp droop and copious swoop of styles that hurt the pocketbook as well as the eyes. Time was when a seventeenth century Herrick could write debonairly:

Whenas in silks my Julia goes,
Then, then (methinks) how sweetly flows
That liquefaction of her clothes.

Not so today. The totalitarian rustle of fashion has undertones as ominous as the new candy-striped petticoats. Julia—who once swore she would never, never go into those horrid long skirts—now meekly exchanges yesterday's freedom for today's silken slavery. The harried Herrick, who foots the bill for a new wardrobe, might well murmur: Now, now (methinks) how costly grows

The liquidation of her clothes.
Yet does this sleek dictatorship have all the feminine support it claims? One male newscaster who attacked the New Look received 97,432 letters of which only five in every 3,000 favored the new styles. Not all the remainder were from men, you may be sure. Perhaps beneath the complacent surface, unrest is growing. Perhaps one day women will step out again to hoist the standard of revolution—16 inches above the ground—Christian Science Monitor.

WELFARE AIDES TO BROADCAST

Pacific Northwest experts in the field of children's welfare will participate in a weekly radio broadcast to discuss "A Child's World," starting this Saturday, March 27, over Station KJR. It was announced today by Mrs. Irving Smith, chairman of the Seattle-King County Community Chest and Council's radio committee.

The subject of this Saturday's broadcast will be "Prejudice," and the discussion, which will supplement the American Broadcasting Company's half-hour program of the same title, will be from 11 to 11:45 a.m. The program, which is to be broadcast weekly on Saturdays, will be presented as a public service by KJR, in cooperation with the Chest and Council whose committee has invited more than fifty men and women experienced in the weekly panels.

Besides Mrs. Smith, the radio committee members are Roland Bradley, Wayne Dick, Mrs. Purman Dorman, Marguerite Hunt, Mrs. C. W. Jamieson, Earl Johnson, Mrs. Louise Kiskaddon, Mrs. Jessie V. Krueger, Dr. Warner Muir, Dr. Douglass Orr, W. H. Sandford, Fritz Schmidt, and Mrs. Edward Stern.

What a Dancer!

By KAZ KITA

(Presenting the counter-attack to the recent article on dancing—here's the men's side of the story.) Equal Rights

And you had always considered yourself a sharp Joe who could pick 'em! But here you are, dancing with Janie—smooth-looking—yes, but what a dancer! She really believes in equal rights for women. Janie thinks she has to help you lead. What she doesn't know is that it irritates you to be pushed around. Don't worry though—even the sharpest of fellas have made mistakes.

The Mummy
Take Jim, for instance. He'll never forget the girl he "fondly" remembers as the "Mummy." During their first dance (by the way, also the last), "M" didn't say a word except to say "yes" or "no" in answer. She didn't even let Jim see that Listerine smile!

Frankenstein
Then there's the story of Tom. Poor guy, he really isn't a Frankenstein, but he honestly believes he was during one dance. Clammy hands, frightened eyes—all this was a part of his partner. She wouldn't be such a bad dancer if she'd relax once in a while.

Ivy
Incidentally, did you see the movie, "Ivy"? Well, so did Dick, and it brought back memories. Unpleasant ones of that "Vine." Dick especially remembers the "Vine" because she didn't dance the way most girls do. She had to be different and cling. And we mean cling!

THE PRESIDENT'S TALK

Last week, President Truman's message to Congress was broadcast over the nation's networks and aroused more interest among the citizenry than perhaps any other talk he has made during recent months. In his message, the President dwelt upon the grave international situation and urged that Congress approve universal military training and, in the meantime, enact legislation to permit the drafting of men to bring up the armed forces to their full authorized strength.

The President's message revealed the fact that the Red menace is no longer a topic to be officially ignored for fear of arousing the sensibilities of Soviet Russia. On the contrary, the Russian shadow is now acknowledged as being the gravest of all threats to world peace and our own national security. From now on, we may expect that American foreign policy will be openly and aggressively directed to the end that the Red menace be held at bay.

Significantly enough, no responsible voice arose to accuse the President of "warmongering." Thus, while the present situation is reminiscent of 1938 and early 1939, it differs from that of prewar days in that one important particular. Although revival of the draft and extensive military training is an unpleasant thought to a nation which is still paying the bills of the last war, public reaction to the Presidential message was, in general one of quiet acceptance of the inevitable.

The American people, of course, do not want war, and the prayer of the common man is that international difficulties may somehow be composed without resort to the use of ultimate force. But, on the other hand, nothing is to be gained by emulation of the ostrich. The frank facing of realities by the American government is, we feel, our greatest safeguard and our firmest guarantee against another war. For this reason, we are glad that Mr. Truman spoke out, and we trust that he will continue to maintain a forthright attitude toward world affairs.

PUNCHLESS ARMY

In any Army, the striking force or "punch" is concentrated in its effective and usable combat troops, whose mission is always to close with the enemy and destroy him. The sole function of all other units in the Army is to supply, maintain and serve the combat soldier; and the number of such combat troops is the true criterion of the effective force of the Army.

Measured by this standard, the effective force of our present peacetime Army is practically nil. There are perhaps less than 30,000 usable combat troops now wearing the uniform in the entire U. S. Army. The Second Division, now stationed at Fort Lewis, is the only regular infantry division in the U. S. and its strength is only two-thirds of wartime standards. When called upon to parade, it cannot make even as good a showing in point of numbers as, for example, the 442nd Combat Team during Camp Shelby days. This is in no sense a reflection against the Second Division, but a commentary upon the sad state of the entire Army, less than three years after V-E Day.

Small wonder, then, that our government feels that the nucleus of our ground forces is inadequate. A campaign is now under way to recruit overseas veterans into some famous divisions, including the 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 9th infantry divisions; the 2nd and 3rd armored divisions, and the 82nd airborne division. If voluntary enlistments do not fill these outfits up to full strength, it can be expected that the long arm of the draft will be called upon to make up the difference.

BREVITIES

It is reported that Manager JoJo White of the Rainiers is unhappy over the rainy weather which is raising havoc with his training program, but Manager JoJo KESAMARU of our own Nisei Vets ball club is no less unhappy over what the weather man has been doing the past two Sundays. Please, Mr. Pluvius, can't you arrange to concentrate the rain during the middle of the week?... We hear that GEORGE ABE, formerly of the 522nd Field Artillery, has now received his commission as Second Lieutenant in the Coast Artillery, National Guard... The NVC will have its first meeting under the chairmanship of LEFTY ICHIHARA on the 2nd of April, at which time plans will be unfolded and discussed for the coming year. Social Chairman DUFFY KIYOHARA says to tell the faithful that a U. W. football movie will be shown after the meeting... And that's all for today.

Here's how the Self-D-Froster works!

This handsome electric clock, mounted on the refrigerator door, turns the mechanism off at midnight, switches it on after the coating of frost has melted.

THE Sporting Thing

by bf

They're Drafting 'Em Now

Like President Truman who must await the approval of Congress before he could have the military draft become a law, the local Nisei baseball scouts also are having their trouble.

Where are the future baseball stars?

Are they spending their time playing the slot machines? Are they trying for the side pocket in a pool hall, night after night? Or are they busying themselves escorting attractive damsels around town?

Talent may not be in abundance but the draft of promising diamond warriors is being revived slowly again.

Baseball scouts represent the Nisei Vets and White River A. C. of the Puget Sound circuit, and teams in THE NORTHWEST TIMES league.

Which outfit are you going to join, young feller?

SAINTS WALLOP NISSEIS, 55-34, IN FRISCO TILT

(Special to Northwest Times)

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., March 24—Chinese All-Stars proved they were better on their feet than the Berkeley Nisseis last Saturday night in the Civic Auditorium here.

On a floor which was too slippery for a good basketball game, the Chinese cagers defeated the Nisseis, Northern California NAU champions by a 55 to 34 count.

The Chinese were hot early in the game, jumping into a commanding 16-7 lead at half time. With ten minutes of play remaining in the battle, the winners who coasted to victory were out in front 39 to 25. The Nisseis were never able to get going.

Willie "Woo Woo" Wong, the Chinese ace, sank five field goals and two foul shots for 12 points. Other Chinese in the two-number bracket were Jimmy Wong, 13; Charlie Lum, 12 and Peter Lum, 10.

The Nisseis showed with Johnny Oshida and Shig Yoshimine on the firing line with 12 and 10 points respectively.

A week ago, the Chinese, who perhaps were overconfident, were drubbed, 46 to 43, by the San Francisco Nisei All-Stars.

The scoring follows:

PORTLAND Ore., March 24—Second half of the O.N.G.B.L. ended on March 19 with the Lucky Strikers finishing in first place. Winners of the first half and second half will play off 9 p.m. Friday, March 26, at the Hollywood Bowling Alley.

Takako Inukai's 430 series and Chickie Aono's 424 series led the Lucky Strikers to a 3-1 victory over the Rockettes. Leading the losing team were Marian Hara with 429 series and Jinx Tamiyasu with 426 series.

In the other match, Pin-Ups defeated the Cellar Pessimists in a 3-1 game. High bowlers were Sy Mitoma with 437 series for Pin-Ups and Alice Sono with 433 series and Tamae Yamamoto with 432 series for Cellar Pessimists.

Pin Leaders Here Face Hard Fight

Trundling squads in the Nisei Commercial League, the City Merchants League, and the SNGBO (Seattle Nisei Girls' Bowling Organization) league are almost up for the tenth frame in their fight for titular laurels in Main Bowl.

The leaders, at this writing, are Kashiwagi's in the NCL, Karikomi's in the CML, and Tokuda's in the SNGBO, and all of them will be battling for each pin to finish at the top of their respective league heap.

And in each league, only one team threatens to knock out the favorites.

In the NCL, Kashiwagi's face Shanty Inn; in the CML, Karikomi's oppose International Realty, and in the SNGBO, Tokuda's find Frank's Jewelry.

Best chances are accorded International Realty of CML and Frank's Jewelry of SNGBO. NCL Shanty Inn's only hope is for a colossal collapse of Kashiwagi's.

(Special to N. W. Times)

PORTLAND, Ore., March 24—The ONBL (Oregon Nisei Bowling League) was thrown into a mild disturbance last Friday night in Hollywood Alleys when Kern Park Florists upset league-leading Azumano Insurance, 3-1 while Cascade Produce was taking four straight from Motor Clinic.

The florists' triumphs sent Cascade and Azumano's into a two-way tie for second-half and championship honors.

Glant-killing florists were paced by Geo. Komachi who whacked the maples for a 526 series. Azumano's showed with Nobu Furukawa and Tosh Shimizu, the latter with a 207 game.

Cascade Produce, taking advantage of Azumano's 3-1 loss white-washed Motor Clinic on the pin-tossing strength of the Saito brothers. Tomo fired a 532, and Emo a 510. One of Emo's games was a 203.

In other league games, Sono Team whipped Lombard Food Center, 3-1 as Tom Shiki of the victors scored a 509 and Lombard Food Center's Harry Nimi had a 507, and Russellville Market, steadied by Kaz Fujii, took Tsuboi's Jewelers, 3-1. Fujii tossed in a neat 549 series.

Japanese One Of Qualifiers

T. Fukunaga was one of the first three qualifiers in the Seattle Times City Salmon Derby when the derby opened last Saturday. Fukunaga's fish was a 12-pound 8-ounce blackmouth which was caught mooching off the coal bunkers in East Waterway.

Other two qualifiers were O. C. Atwell who caught a five-pound blackmouth in Shilshole Bay, and Ralph Williams with his seven-pound 12-ounce spawning silver hooked while mooching off Sunset Dock.

Fukunaga's fish will be displayed at Warshaw's.

Tokuda Cagers Head for Salt Lake, Seeded Number Two by Officials in 13th Annual Intermountain Tourney

Primed and determined to win the 13th annual Salt Lake Intermountain Invitational Basketball Tournament championship, Tokuda Drug, led by Coach Stan Karikomi, left Monday afternoon by automobile for Salt Lake City, Utah.

Tokuda's, Northwest Nisei cage champions, let the championship slip off their fingertip last season at the expense of seeing Shobo Fujii injure his ankle bone and having booked too many games en route to the tournament site.

Karikomi's forces on this trip consisted of Hod Otani, Mote Yasuda, Chuck Kinoshita, Yuk Takeuchi, George Nakagawa, Manabu Fujino, Isao Nishimura, Shobo Fujii and Ari Yoshioka, the only new addition to the traveling squad, hails from Mercury, and is considered one of the brighter stars in the local NVC-sponsored Class A league. T. R. Goto will accompany the team as score-keeper.

Conquerors of mighty Cathay Post 186 in the recent Northwest Times' Northwest Invitational tourney, Tokuda's will floor one of the strongest fives in Salt Lake City, being seeded number two and tabbed as "the team to beat."

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 24—The 13th annual Salt Lake JACL Intermountain Basketball Tournament will be held on Thursday March 25, Friday, March 26 and Saturday, March 27, in the Pioneer Stake gym.

The Seattleites' starting men will be Nishimura and Kinoshita, forwards; Fujino, center; and Fujii and Yasuda, guards.

Nishimura easily is the most feared point-getter in the Seattle loop. Besides being a dangerous scorer, the lad, who is an expert rebound man, is lightning-fast on his breaks toward the iron ring. Kinoshita, who fills the other forward slot, is a rugged fellow who is deadly on his set shots.

Fujino, the 6 foot 2 inch center, is the mainstay of the team. His height and his consistent scoring mark him as Tokuda's "favorite son" under the basket and near the foul shot area.

Possibly the most unheralded man on the team is Yasuda who operates from the guard post. Yasuda last season was a sensation with his high, arching, long shots which spoiled many a team bidding to upset Tokuda's. Although he hasn't hit his peak in the shooting department, he has performed remarkably well on the defense front.

Fujii, Salt Lake fans will remember, was a "ball of fire" last season, but he has slowed somewhat. The youth now is conserving his energy and learning to be more cautious on the offensive drive. He, however, has lost none of his knack to dribble a la Hank Luisetti of Stanford U fame.

As their last practice game before heading for the 13th annual Intermountain Nisei Invitational Basketball Tournament in Salt Lake City, Skipper Stan Karikomi's Tokuda Drug boys walloped undefeated Yellam Tavern, 80 to 26, in the Buddhist gym last Friday night. Yuk Takeuchi and Ari Yoshioka racked up 12 points apiece to lead the Tokuda attack.

The Social Whirl

Seattle's beautiful Buddhist temple last Sunday was the scene of the wedding of Miss Yoshiko Asaba, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kinzo Asaba, to Mr. George Mamiya, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Mamiya.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white pure silk eyelet gown, embroidered in ivory silk thread, and the traditional neckline piped in ivory satin. The details showed up in the buttons cascading down the front of the bodice to a point just below the waistline, the long tight-fitted sleeves, also piped in ivory satin, pointing over the wrists. The skirt was fashioned with a full train, the outline of which was an applique of the eyelet material. The hemline was finished similarly. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. The bride's bouquet was of gardenias, stephanotis and centered with a white orchid.

Miss Tokiko Senda, maid of honor, wore an aqua silk eyelet gown with a boat neckline and short cape sleeves. The bodice was buttoned down the front and had a full poplin. The full aqua crepe skirt was worn with an overskirt of net. Miss Senda carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Yaeiko Asaba, the bridesmaid, wore a gown which was similarly fashioned in pink. She carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

The flower girl, Gloria Tomita, wore a yellow eyelet pure silk gown. Her full skirt edged in ruffles was cut up to a point in the back to reveal her white ruffled chambray petticoat. A thin black velvet ribbon was tied in the back at the waistline. She carried a basket of yellow daffodils.

Mrs. K. Asaba chose a grey crepe formal and wore a gardenia corsage with red roses, and Mrs. J. Mamiya, who also wore a grey crepe formal had a gardenia corsage with pink roses.

Best man was Mr. Raymond Sasaki. Ushers were the Messrs. Masao Watanabe and Edwin Sasaki.

A reception was held in Gyokko-Ken Cafe at which time the bride was dressed in a Japanese kimono. Mr. Hiro Nishimura acted as toastmaster.

For her going-away suit, the bride, who wore a white orchid corsage, chose a navy blue suit with a pink scarf and a navy blue hat with pink veiling. Her accessories also were navy blue.

Receiving his discharge from the army at Ft. Lawton last week, Mr. Shig Ozima, formerly of Seattle, was to have left for Chicago today with his Japanese bride whom he married in Tokyo.

Ozima reenlisted for service in Japan and served with the ATIS and later with Technical Intelligence unit at Tokyo for the past two years.

To introduce his wife to his friends, Mr. Bob Uomoto, formerly of Seattle but now of San Francisco, last Saturday gave a buffet supper in the home of his parents.

Mr. Uomoto's wife is the former Mary Nakashima of San Francisco. The couple, here on a honeymoon, left Monday for California.

Present at the Uomoto party were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Sano, the Misses Laura Nakamura, Tokuko Naito, Sharon Tanagi, and the Messrs. Eddie Sano, Ted Sato, Jiro Nakagawa, Sam and George Uomoto, and Tosh Tanemura.

Climaxing a friendship which began when they were children,

Miss Hannah Naganuma, 26, of Spokane, and Mr. Lewis Achen, 22 years old, will be married here today (Mar. 24) in the University Temple Methodist Church.

Achen, a junior in philosophy at the University of Washington, said that he and his Nisei fiancée attended the same grade school in Havre, Mont. He is a Navy veteran with two years service in the Pacific with the Seabees.

"We both realize we are facing some problems which will require a lot of independence on our part," Achen said. "But we'll make a go of it."

After their marriage, the couple will live at 4325 15th Ave. N. E.

PORTLAND, Oreg., March 24—A first wedding anniversary dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Shig Hinatsu was held in their home last March 14. Mrs. Hinatsu is the former Shiz Yasui.

The guests present were the Misses Chikie Aono, Fumi and Takako Inukai, Marie Namba, Messrs. Aki Namba, Victor Hinatsu, Hifumi Fukui, and the Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Yasui, Kenzie Namba, Kaz Hinatsu of Payette, Idaho, and Harry Morioka of The Dalles, Oregon.
