

5. "Mosier Beach".

Ca. 1926

After a huge picnic lunch, most of the people at the Undokai would gather at the beach on the Columbia River. The children were always marched in columns of two or 3 to the beach, where races of all sorts were held.