

entered the Army in May, 1942.

Noboru Sakahara enlisted in January, 1942, and served until November 15, 1945, when he was discharged at Camp Grant, Ill. He fought in the Rome-Arno, Northern Apennines, Po Valley and Rhineland and received the Purple Heart for wounds received in the European theater January 28, 1945. He also has four bronze battle stars.

Kenneth M. Singleton, private