Newlyweds Return To Home In Vashon

By DOROTHY HOSHI

VASHON, Wash., Aug. 24.—Mr. Dan Sakahara of Fife and his bride, the former Pauline Tanaka of Vashon, returned to the island after spending their honeymoon enjoying a drive from Tacoma through the scenic views of the Columbia River Highway, Portland, Hoods Canal and stopping in at Wapato and Yakima. Mt. Rainier was visited on their way back.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT OF PAULINE TANAKA

Announcement was recently made of the engagement of Pauline Tanaka to Yasuo Sakahara, of Fife, at the bride's home. A special engagement service was read at the time by Rev. So, of the Tacoma Japanese Methodist church. Friends of both families were present for the happy occasion.

Miss Tanaka, one of the leaders in Japanese circles of the Island, is a charming and intelligent young woman. She is vice-president of the Japanese Young People's Society and correspondent for a number of Japanese-American periodicals.

Mr. Sakahara has served as president of the Fife Young People's Club for two years and is chairman of the membership committee of the Puyallup Valley Citizens' League.

These young people have a wide circle of friends both among the Americans and Japanese.

The date of the wedding has not, as yet, been announced.

Dear Pauline:

Love and good wishes go with this little gift. We hope you will always be happy as you are tonight.

Sincerely,

Margery L. Ames

FOR YOUR SHOWER

This gift for your shower
Holds a wish warm and true
That life will forever
Shower blessings on you.

You deserve life's best!

May you find it, too,
In the future that's waiting
To welcome you!

Your Friend Always
Mrs J. E. Selleck

Dear Pauline:-

Love and good wishes go with this little gift. We hope you will always be happy as you are tonight.

Sincerely,

Margery L. Ames

Tanaka-Sakahara Wedding is Today

From Coutries
By Shigeo Wakamatsu

TACOMA—Two young people, among the leaders in their respective communities, will be married this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the Tacoma Japanese Methodist church.

The couple are Miss Pauline Hatsue Tanaka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tanaka of Vashon Island, and Mr. Dan Yasuo Sakahara of Fife.

Miss Gretel Tanimura of Burton is to be maid-of-honor, while the flower girl will be Miss Kazuko Sakahara, sister of the bridegroom. Mr. Toru Sakahara, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man.

Miss Tanaka is correspondent for The Courier on Vashon Island, and active in young people's work there. Mr. Sakahara is vice president of the Puyallup Valley Citizens' League, and manager of the recently organized Tacoma Farmers' Association.

WEDDING SATURDAY

By Katherine Yamamoto

Fife, Aug. 14—An interesting wedding of the mid-summer season will be that of Miss Pauline Tanaka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tanaka of Vashon Island, and Mr. Dan Sakahara of Fife which will take place Saturday afternoon at the Tacoma Japanese Methodist Church.

Miss Gretel Tanimura will be the maid of honor. The flower girl will be Miss Kazuko Sakahara.

Mr. Toru Sakahara will be best man.

Miss Tanaka has been an active and prominent second generation leader on the island.

Mr. Sakahara has been president of the local Seinenkai, and vice president of the Puyallup Valley Citizens' League.

Pauline Tanaka and Dan Sakahara Are Married In Tacoma

The following story, clipped from a Seattle Japanese newspaper, describes the wedding of Pauline Tanaka to Dan Sakahara, of Fife, which took place in Tacoma Saturday, August 18: "Charm and beauty marked the marriage rites last Saturday for Miss Pauline Tanaka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tanaka, of Vashon, to Dan Sakahara, of Fife, held in the Japanese Methodist church in Tacoma. The wedding guests were relatives and many intimate friends who gathered in the chapel which was made radiant by many bouquets of peach and white hued gladiolas bordered by beautiful ferns.

"Preceding the service, Mr. Tomeu Takayoshi sang "Because" and "Oh Promise Me" accompanied by Miss Ruth Kazama who later played the wedding march.

For her marriage Miss Tanaka wore a beautiful white satin gown with full train skirt and a short veil. She carried a large bridal bouquet of yellow roses. Her only attendant was Miss and next Saturday will engage the Portland Jrs. in a game. The Hood River nine will play the Lotus nine of Seattle on Labor Day in Portland in an inter-state contest.

Newly-Weds Visit Matsushita Home

WAPATO, Wash., Aug. 2'.—Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sakahara, newly-weds, were visitors at the Matsushita home on Monday.

Mrs. Sakahara is the former Pauline Tanaka, a well-known Vashon girl.

Gretel Tanimura, of Vashon, who wore a blue crepe frock and carried a bouquet of roses. Miss Kazuko Sakahara who was the flower girl, was dressed in light orange georgette. Toru Sakahara was the best man."

Mr. and Mrs. Sakahara are making their home on the Island.

A reception, for local Japanese and American friends of the young couple, will be held at the Island Club Saturday afternoon. A large number of invited guests will be received in the traditional Japanese manner.

Mr. Sakahara is known to only a few Island people, but his bride has a wide circle of friends among both Japanese and American residents. She has lived here all of her life, attending the Island schools, and has taken a prominent part in various activities.

Japanese Couple Given Reception on Saturday Evening

About two hundred Japanese and American friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sakahara (Pauline Tanaka) were present last Saturday night at a reception given for the young couple by the parents of the bride at the Island Club.

Preceding a supper which featured both Japanese and American food, B. D. Mukai, one of the intermediaries, introduced the bride and groom, and welcomed them into the community.

Other speakers were T. Sakahara, brother of the groom; Daiichi Yoshioaka, president of the Tacoma Marketing Association; Massa Mukai; K. Hayashida, of Bellevue; H. Miyoshi, president of the Vashon Japanese Young People's Society, and Ken Yor-ioka.

K. Tanimura acted as toastmaster.

Mr. and Mrs. Sakahara are living in Tacoma for the present at 1320 1-2 Broadway, at the May Flower Apartments. They will spend their weekends on the Island, but the duties

Vashon News

A reception was given at the Island Clubhouse in honor of the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sakahara, by Mr. and Mrs. H. Tanaka, parents of the bride. Many friends attended this gay event.

Mr. Sakahara, as manager of the Tacoma Marketing Association, make it impossible for them to live on the Island as was first announced. However, since Mrs. Sakahara is the only child of her parents traditional loyalty demands that she shall still assist them in every way possible, and she will be here often.

Both the bride and groom have a wide circle of friends here and in Fife, the groom's home, who extend their best wishes for future success and prosperity.
