Dear sir:

Today, I'm dropping a few lines to ask a question about ordering. We have canteen in our center but it is certainly high, about twice as much as outside. I've been ordering to Montgomery and many other American stores but since I saw ~~at~~ read about your advertisement, I thought I'll order some to you.

Since this is my first time of trying your store I want you to figure out the exact amount for these items. Also if you didn't have these you think you could gather it up for me? Here I go, the following are:

- 2 ^{the largest you could get} large jar of Woodbury facial cream
- 2 Professional size contents 12 oz Calos tooth powder
- 2 25¢ worth of perfumes (good ones that ~~has~~ has a nice odor or smell).

Will you please figure everything up and send me the tag, then I'll ~~send~~ send the money and order. Also include this medicine that I have written in Japanese in seperate paper, that is if you could get hold of it. Will you please and send me the answer. Just wondered if you had all of these.

Thank You!

Sincerely

S. Matubara
