ARAPAHOE DIGEST

Published for the Benefit of the Residents of

ARAPAHOE COURTS

Clara Morrison
Norma Carico
Betty Iske

Vol. 1, Issue 8

March 14, 1944

Much against her modest will, this issue of the Arapahoe Digest is appropriately dedicated to Betty Iske, editor-in-chief and, until her recent resignation, president of the Arapahoe Courts Tenant Council. From the very beginning, Betty has given unselfishly of her time and talents toward the promotion of countless worthwhile activities within the Courts. We are indeed fortunate to have such a person among us.

Greetings to the following new tenants:

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schnabel, and their daughter Sharon, who are now at home at 1152 - 26th St.

Mr. and Mrs. George Harrower and their son, Kenneth; they now reside at 1158 - 26th St.

Mrs. C. B. Greer has recently returned from a short visit to Boulder where she visited with friends and relatives.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. E. J. Morrison is recovering nicely from a minor operation she underwent recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Evan Davis are enjoying a short visit at Sterling with Mrs. Davis' parents.

It is with regret that we learn of the death of Carol Ann Cahoon, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cahoon.

THANKS

We wish to express our most sincere appreciation and thanks to our many friends and neighbors for the beautiful flowers and gifts and kindness extended us when we lost our darling baby, little Carol Ann.

Mr. & Mrs. Jack R. Cahoon
& Family

Mr. & Mrs. C. I. Hougen
Mr. & Mrs. Lester Henson

Mrs. S. Terasaki is in Presbyterian Hospital where she recently underwent an operation. We hope to see her home soon.

THRU BABY'S EYES
By Charles Barth

We'd give a lot to be all-wise
And learn the secrets that you hold;
To share the joy your laughing eyes
Somehow reveal, yet leave untold.

Perhaps you see a better world
Than this in which man bungled so;
When battle flags at last, are furled
As intellect rules war must go.

That incoherent daily speech
We try so hard to comprehend,
Must be a lesson you would teach--
Some vital truth you recommend.

Though when you take the ruler's seat
We'll gladly bow to your commands;
Today, the world lies at your feet
But Time shall place it in your hands.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Goddard will be glad to hear that while Mr.
Goddard is still in St. Luke's Hospital, he is improving as rapidly as can be expected.

Household Helps

A new trick to clean tarnished copper or brass - rub with the rind of a lemon dipped in salt.

Remove grease from the stove with a rag soaked in vinegar before polishing.

SERVICE MEN'S CORNER

Our first and foremost service man is Mr. Evan Davis who is now home on furlough after finishing his basic naval training at Farragut, Idaho.

Mrs. Merta Rockwell and Mrs. Jay
Bowers entertained Pvt. Kenny Kleensmith of Buckley Field last Sunday. He is Mrs. Rockwell's nephew from Michigan.

Sgt. Carl Amato, from Buckley Field, brought two soldier friends and visited the Iske's last Sunday. Sgt. Amato is an old friend.

DEVILED TONGUE

Let any tongue you may select be boiled in hatred over a fire of jealousy and spiced with sarcasm;
"confidential" criticism, falsehood, and flattery, and you will find that it is decidedly deviled.

If this is too highly spiced, soak a tongue for some time in the habit of fault-finding and irritability, and season with tales of disease and misfortune.
After these are done, if you do not like them you can undevil them by using ingredients that are the opposites in quality of those named, but this is a difficult task and requires patience.

This same group at that time organized the "Ritzy 10½ Club" which will get under way soon.

NEIGHBORLINESS

I expect to pass through this world but once; if there is any good thing that I can do--any kindness which I may show my fellow-man, let me do it now. Let me not defer nor neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

He brought it home this way: He said for us to ask ourselves "What have I done today, that some Mother's son should die for me tonight." -- Makes you think, doesn't it? Bonds and stamps are on sale everywhere. Have you bought more than your share?
