

Sunday
Evening
8:30 pm

Dear Ronnie:- (The peak from Honolulu HI)
Ha Ha

I am very sorry about Sat. nite and I hope you will forgive me. I do not like to make anyone unhappy, especially you, and as I said before, I will do everything I can to make you happy.

You can come over & spend every Sunday afternoons with me & have supper with us. I don't think the landlady will bother us, anyway, so what she doesn't know won't hurt her. Then I'll say every Sat nite & every Thurs, nite for you - now, how is that?

Please call me up at work if I am forgiven. I'll be working until 9pm tomorrow evening so please call if you (ran out of ink can't feel any more) get this letter by that time. Otherwise call me at lunch time Tues. And don't you walk out on me by leaving Chicago because I'll never forgive you if you do Thanks again for the purse & the flower for my hair. I'm crazy about the purse, really. Thanks again.

Will be waiting for you to call - until you call I'll be terribly worried so don't give me any gray hair.
