

GEORGETOWN BRANCH
SEATTLE-FIRST NATIONAL BANK

ESTABLISHED 1870

SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

C. W. RICHESON
MANAGER

Jan. 2, 1942

Mr. K. Uno,
Camp 27,
Fort Missoula,
Missoula, Montana

Dear Mr. Uno:

We enclose herewith a check book for your use, if you will sign a check and make it payable to your wife for the $100.00 and mail it back to us, we will have her endorse same and pay to her that sum from your account, for the current months expense.

Yours truly,

M. A. Buhl

Below find signatures authorized in payment of funds or the transaction of other business for the joint account of:

JOINT ACCOUNT

---

WITH SEATTLE - FIRST NATIONAL BANK

---

It is agreed and understood by the undersigned that this is a Joint Account payable on either signature and to the survivor of either.

Each of the undersigned hereby appoints the other his or her attorney to endorse any check, draft, note or other instrument payable to the order of the other or both of said joint depositors, and to cash and collect the proceeds of all such checks, drafts, notes and other instruments or to deposit the same in said joint account.

This authorization is given subject to the terms and conditions stated above and on the reverse side of this card, which the undersigned have read and hereby expressly agree to.

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

Sign Here

X

sign on opposite

Sign Here

X

Date

Tel.

Address

Seattle - First National Bank receives items for collection and/or deposit upon the following terms, which the depositor hereby agrees to.

In receiving checks or other items, this bank assumes no responsibility for the failure, neglect or default of any direct or indirect collecting agent; shall not be liable for loss or delay due to indirect routing of items or for items lost in the mails; and shall only be held liable when proceeds in actual funds or unconditional solvent credits shall have come into its possession. Any credit given before such conditions have been fulfilled shall be charged back if such funds or solvent credits shall not be received by the bank. The bank may directly, or through sub-agents, forward or present items to banks or concerns on which the same are drawn, for collection and/or remittance and may receive checks or drafts of such banks or concerns in settlement therefor, such items to be at the depositors risk until actual funds are received by the bank therefor.

Checks on this bank will be credited conditionally. If not found good at the close of business, they will be charged back to the depositor. Checks or other items on Seattle banks or concerns may be carried over for presentation through the clearing house or otherwise on the business day following the day they are deposited.

It is hereby agreed that the bank without notice may charge this account with any service or handling charge or fee which is now or may hereafter be established in respect thereof by bank rules or regulations; that the undersigned shall be bound by any such rules or regulations; that rules or regulations may be altered or amended at any time and that the posting of a notice for one week in the bank's lobby shall be requisite notice of any change or amendment.

The depositor further agrees that statements of accounts and cancelled vouchers not called for over a period of three months may be forwarded to the depositor at his last known address by first-class, registered mail at the depositor's expense. In such event, the depositor assumes all responsibility for loss or mis-carriage in the mail, and agrees to be bound by the bank's provisions relating to examination of statements and vouchers.

Opened with $.....Business.....

Reference.....Introduced by.....

GEORGETOWN BRANCH
SEATTLE-FIRST NATIONAL BANK
GEORGETOWN STATION
SEATTLE, WASHINGTON

Mr. K. Uno

Camp 27,

Fort Missoula,

Missoula, Montana