

FEDERAL RESERVE BANK OF SAN FRANCISCO

FISCAL AGENT OF THE UNITED STATES

March 13, 1942

Kinuta and Ryoko Uno,
Route 5, Box 11-P,
Seattle, Washington.

Dear Sir and Madam:

We are returning the Form TFR-300, Series J, property report recently submitted by you.

We regret we are unable to accept this report for the reason that it was not signed by the persons reporting. The Treasury Department has ruled that the affidavit on Form TFR-300, Series J must be executed by the national reporting. Reports submitted on affidavits of any other persons will not be acceptable.

Certain essential information was not given in the spaces which we have indicated by red check marks. In accordance with Instruction 2 (b), Section III of Public Circular No. 4A, each question must be answered and all of the specific information called for must be given. When there is nothing to report under any question, or if information is lacking, state "no", "none", or "unknown" as the case may be.

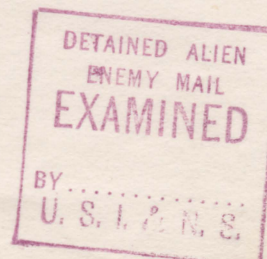

For your convenience we are forwarding, under separate cover, five copies of Series J report forms.

Yours very truly,

H. F. Slade
