Dear Friends, Near and Far,

At the request of Ruth and Rich, I am adding a note to discourage any of you inclined to send an anniversary gift. They feel that your effort to share in their celebration either by attending in person or by writing is far more satisfying at this point in their lives.

What they aren't aware of, however, is Dick's and my plan to present them with an album comprised of reminiscences from those invited. Whether or not you plan to attend we are asking that you take some time to write down - in poetry or prose - handwriting or type - your account of an incident (s) involving Ruth and Rich which you feel illustrates their uniqueness as a couple.

In this way, we feel Ruth and Rich can have a more lasting and pleasing tribute from the friends who have filled their years together with countless treasured memories than any thing purchased. Please send your reminiscence to: Mrs. Larry Bartz

I will need to have them before June 15th as I am leaving after that date for New Rochelle.

Thank you in advance for any efforts you can make toward completing this album for my parents.

Sincerely,

Margery
