

*Trinity Episcopal Church,
Groton,
South Dakota*

3-10-02

Dear Kris,

My sympathies on the death of your father, but how marvelous to hear you speak of his ZEST!

Fondly,
Ginny Dixon

TRINITY EPISCOPAL CHURCH
GROTON, SOUTH DAKOTA 57445

The church building was begun on July 1, 1883 and completed the following year. This church is still consecrated in its diocese; however, the deed was given to the Brown County Historical Society in 1974. Distinguishing features include the stained glass windows, the white wood cross on top and the board and batten siding.

APDA

Thank You

...for your contribution of $ 10.00 to the American Parkinson Disease Association, Inc. The vitally needed funds help ensure that we can continue our ongoing commitment to research.

Re: Memory of Kanji Domoto

Sincerely,
John Pillarella, President

- No goods or services were provided in exchange for this donation.