

Dear Lou -

Thank you for your visit, and all your nice clipping.

As I get on, my old
dear friends become much more important to me - and you are one of the most special ones. You've taught me so much of the beauty to be seen & created. You and

They are two of the finest & people to enter my life - and I treasure
you, and the sweet memory of her.

I will call on you again!

Love Helen

of heart disease at her

Rochelle. She was 76.
Mrs. Lawrence was born July 18, 1916, in Henderson, N.C., to Harry and Elizabeth Harris Burton. She came to Mount Vernon as a and two sisters, Adele Burton Hill and Cathie Burton, died earlier.

Camelot Funeral Home Inc. in Mount Vernon handled the funeral arrangements.

Helen R. Wade: musician

Helen R. Wade, a longtime soprano soloist and former New Rochelle resident, died yesterday at Greenwich (Conn.) Hospital. She was 72.

Mrs. Wade was born May 7, 1920, in Garnett, Kan., to Karl and May Sheldon Dahl. She attended Kansas State University, earning a bachelor's degree in music.

After entertaining troops in Germany as a singer for about a year, she moved to New York City in 1945.

She married Morris L. Wade on July 22, 1950, in Riverdale. The couple lived in several cities before settling in New Rochelle, living in Sutton Manor for 15 years until moving in 1986 to Riverside, Conn.

Mrs. Wade was a homemaker and a passionate musician. She was a soprano soloist for several years at the Dutch Reformed Church in Bronxville, where she was a member. She sang for many years at Pintard Presbyterian Church in New Rochelle.

She was also a guitar teacher and an active, longtime member of the Westchester Music Teachers Council-Musicians Guild.

Mrs. Wade was also a member of the Greenwich Racquet Club and was an enthusiastic downhill and cross-country skier.

She is survived by her husband; a daughter, Sidney Ellen Powell Wade of Gainesville, Fla.; a son-in-law, novelist Padgett Powell; a son, Jonathan Martin Wade of Harrison; two brothers, Raymond Dahl of Kansas City, Mo., and Robert Dahl of Manhattan, Kan.; four grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

Family and friends are making contributions to the Westchester Musicians Guild, care of Thelma Bobrow, 152 Seton Drive, New Rochelle, N.Y. 10804.

Arrangements are being handled by Leo P. Gallagher and Son Funeral Home of Greenwich.

Mrs. Billups worked a mestic most her life.

In addition to her husband, Lakeland, Fla., Mrs. Bill survived by five sisters, Branch of White Plains, Muller of Bridgeport, Connel Crump, Etha McCra Ruby Bardliving, all of New Rochelle; two brothers, Freddy, living of the Bronx and Bardliving of Calumet Cl and several nieces and nepl

Arrangements are being handled by Edward E. Bailey F Directors Inc. in New York.

Iris M. Baker homemaker

Iris M. Baker, a homemaker and longtime White Plains resident, died yesterday of heart failure at her home. She was 66.

Mrs. Baker had lived in White Plains since 1946.

She was born Jan. 25, 1900, in Barry South Glamorgan in Wales, Britain, to James I. and Helen R. Wakert Sloman. She came to the United States in

On Aug. 12, 1943, she married James E. Baker in South Wal

In addition to her husband, White Plains, she is survived by three daughters, Pamela Giacalone and Jamie Baker, both of White Plains, and Linda Baker of Yonkers; two brothers, Nicholas Sloman and Kenneth Sloman, both of Barry South Glamorgan; two sisters, Myra Sutton and Betty Tilton, both of Barry South Glamorgan; a sister-in-law Mary Baker of New Rochelle; and four grandchildren.

Two sons, William and Edward Baker, died earlier.

Arrangements are being handled by McMahon, Lyon and Hartnett in White Plains.

Leonarda Frezzo: Pelham resident

Leonarda "Nelda" Mary Frezzo, a 23-year resident of Pelham, died yesterday at Lawrence Hospital in Bronxville. She was 63.

She was born March 31, 1929, to Victor and Mildred Pucci LaRocca in the Bronx, where she was educated and graduated from Christopher Columbus High School.

She married Joseph P. Frezzo on Oct. 3, 1954, at Immaculate Conception Church in the Bronx.

Mrs. Frezzo was a parishioner of St. Catharine's Church in Pelham.

For 27 years, she worked as secretary-treasurer of Ruggiero Brothers Inc., a family-run auto parts distributor in the Bronx.

In addition to her husband and her mother, of Pelham, she is survived by a daughter, Linda Marie Reilly of Tuckahoe; and a brother, Anthony LaRocca of Yonkers.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements are being handled by the Pelham Funeral Home.

HELEN WADE

Kan Samato