

Dear Ken

I hope things in General are going well with you & your family

I am writing because it has been brought to my attention that Sally's urn does not have a final or permanent resting place. We have in Hayward at the Chapel of the Divine Consolation ~~where~~ a Family Nitch were the urns of my Father Mother and Mary are placed. It's a pleasant Columbarium (if there is such a thing) very comfortable to visit — It's the final resting place for most of the Eden townships Japanese Community — Minami-Kawakami, Hamosaki, Hatateda — too Hatsumi to name a few. The list is endless — There are a number of us when visiting bring extra flowers for our post friends and ~~as~~ acquaintances - so you see there is a warm community feeling towards the deceased which only reflects to part of the O'Japanese Culture -

What I am trying to say is it would be nice or even appropriate to have Sally's Ashes with the other Members of the Family. and there is ample space in the Niche

I spoke to a Mr. Gitting of the Chapel ^{regarding} the transfer matter he said it can be done rather easily.

Should you decide on my suggestion. I will pursue it further on this end.

Until I hear from you take care Ken Fyfe
