Dear sir: I received your gift for the Christmas and I must writing in hast to say, that you gave to us a very fine box of Candy and the Checkers with the compliments of the season. It was pretty greatly appreciated. Thank you for your kind remembrance on the Christmas. so we must starting learn for how ply to checkers.

Since last time we do not hear from you, that how are you and family been well must Father with the cold weather and we talking so often it. This morning my wife send you (Daiko-tsube) that was home made and we hope your Father fond it.

At yesterday the Christmas day, we has a turkeys dinner with out wine for whole camp and every body been good holiday, but wind blow with dust all day along, so no one walking

Out of the door until evening. The weather are very fine, few weeks ago was little cold, that was around 45 degrees in the morning at room and day time are warm, so we have some snow every week on our door in the night.

We hope that your family greatly improved in health, we are fine. Please our sincere regards to all, thank you very much and we write to you again

Sincerely yours
Senda and Wife
