

Sat.

Dear Kaw:

Thanks a lot for those pictures. They turned out very nice. I wonder if I may have those negative especially the one she is alone. I would like to give them to several of ^{my} old friends.

See you are in much thicker water. I just can't picture any girl under Sally's condition would want to divorce. She does not know what hard time she is going to have if she wants to marry again.

Maybe if I wrote her a letter, it may help her to realize several things. Sometime married person could do lot by giving her few points to think about, but before I do that I want to be sure you care enough for her, and she such condition especially her mother should be more than glad to have it the way. Can't she picture what it means to them to have daughter married with a baby to another man.

Oh well write real soon.

Ink.

does for you. Because if she doesn't well maybe it would be better to let her get a divorce.
I'll anyway I won't do anything about it until I hear from you, but I think I could put in few common sense in her and let her realize how much better off she will be ~~marrying~~ if she stayed married.

It aint to go up, but it is very hard for me to go up there now and beside I havint told a soul, so if I do go up, them they will know something is up.

Or maybe Wak could bring Sally down here for a ^{day} visit, just telling her I would like to meet her.

Anyway just hope for the best.

I guess I don't know Mrs or Mr Fujii. I thought for sure under
