

Hi Gal!

I'm in Chicago now - visiting with Mary + Abe - naturally. They're fine & I surely like their apartment - it's so big + roomy. They took my roommate & I out to a reunion - shaker & it was real good. Today is my roommate's birthday too, so it was very nice.

It surely is rainy weather around here my sock I can't stand brooding weather.

The children have grown up so awful lot, haven't they? Before long Mike will be going to school - I think shall be very bright too.

Our housewife has lots of plants in her garden so it's real nice because they're all in bloom now. Have you seen crab-apple blossoms - man, are they pretty + fragrant. Also this of the really grow practically wild out here.

Pardon my writing but I'm changing records & writing at the same time. Since these guys have no radios I hafta sit & play records for my amusement.

Kain said something about visiting you when he gets a little more time. It'll probably be in the summer.

Gu, it's too bad Suzie wasn't so cooperative about Easter but it's over now. I'm glad the kids make good use of those place mats.
I thought they were cute when I bought them.

School is over & now I hafta find a summer job to carry me over for the next year. Whatta life but I'll get out of school someday, I hope. It sure takes a lot of studying. The U of Wisconsin is no snap & I'm telling you, I actually am studying hard. Lots of Jews come so I hafta study to keep up with them.

Last night I went to a beach picnic at Northwestern University.
I had a lot of fun with the Chinese kids from Hawaii, & of all damn things I got picked up by a frustrated minister who's getting his M.A. at a Theology School in Chicago. Boy what a wolf!
After making him get me something to eat at 2:00 A.M., he brought me home, & I gave him a very harty brush-off. These preachers!!!

Tomorrow I'll go back to Madison & look for a job and lead another frustrated life. Oh yeah, I ain't going steady anymore - I wasn't very loyal while I was, anyway. Whatta life!

Mary & Abe are very excited over their Victory Garden & my, oh, my is Abe proud of it. He does most of the work. The other tenants in this house are also very goofy over their gardens. These amateurs!! Abe makes a groove in the hard ground & sticks seeds ^{covers em,} in, & lets the rain take care of the rest. The garden is okay & coming okay. I hope they get some results 'cuz then they'd be very happy. How touching, but it's cute to see them rave about the garden
Take care of yourself + the kids say hello to Kon
Love Kazi
