Hello Sam,

Thanks for your letter.
Was mighty glad to hear from you.
Feel rather guilty for writing to you.
Made several attempts but that's as far as I got.

Just a line at this time to let you know that you're an uncle to another niece. He arrived 12:32 AM. this morning. Wght. - 7 lbs & 1 oz.

Have not had the time to decide on the name yet. Being a girl the responsibility rest more on Tok - That's the understanding.

I guess I don't hand out the cigars this time. Ha! ha!!

You seem to be having a very good trip and your present connections seem to be very practical training & experience for you. I'm glad to hear about it. Next time I hope I can write little more. Until then mine
