

Sept. 9, 1945-

Dear Kan -

May be able to get up to
New York City + maybe to New Rochelle sometime next week.

Hope so.

Yas + Lili Sasaki are making the trip + I'm trying to arrange things so that I can tag along too.

Tazi + I are thinking about moving to N.Y. C. but we don't know yet.

So far, the end of the war has brought no profound changes to us. We are going along as usual, waiting for something big to happen, but somehow it never does. We do have a lot more gasoline, tho, & hence money to get around a little more. We're also looking forward to more meat + butter, as no doubt you are too.

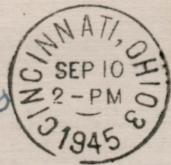

From all reports, Amache is closing pretty soon. I suppose the old place is pretty well deserted now. They say that most of the people are headed back to the Pacific Coast.

What are your plans?

Bob
