

Rural Route 7, Box 137-C
Cincinnati 11, Ohio

Tuesday, October 2, 1945

Dear Kan and Sally,

I suppose Art got there okay by now. We certainly enjoyed having him drop in on us.

Thanks a million for the fine time you gave me when I visited the big town. I'll remember the good food and the Lescaze layout for a long, long time. Do you have the housing project all wrapped up by now? What's next?

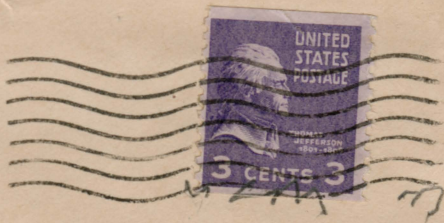

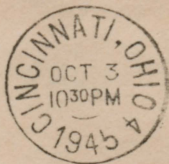

Sorry I didn't get to see you, Sally, and the children when I went up to New Rochelle the next day, but then I got to see the town and the outside of the house anyway. I didn't know that Long Island Sound was so close though, until Ernest Fukuda told us about it when Art took us to meet him Sunday.

Tazi and Joyce send their regards.

Sincerely yours,

Bob

Bob Hirano
Rural Route 7, Box 137-C
Cincinnati 11, Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. K. Domoto
16 Union Street
New Rochelle, N. Y.

[Handwritten signatures and scribbles at the bottom of the envelope, including a large stylized 'M' on the left and various cursive marks in the center and right.]