Dear Sally:

It's been such a long time, wondering you'd remember me. They told me that you're a mother of two now. Must keep your finite busy. My one kept me busy enough.

But you're wondering why I'm writing to you.
It's on the most vital question of the day —
Apartments. Nabel Ordow

was here, and said that some family in one of your apts would be going back to California.
I came out here alone and am staying with the Yasukochis. My in-laws have the baby and are waiting in Detroit for me to find a place. I officially stopped looking several weeks ago. Seemed so useless.
Proper no longer need to hang up signs in order to rent an apartment. I

Have found a temporary place if worse comes to worse. But it is not a desirable place by any means.

So I wondered if you might have a vacancy without a waiting list that is too long, or that you might know of or hear of something. It's terrible because I don't know how or where to look. Of course they say there is no how or where. There are no places to live anywhere.

I believe is now.

Yes - if you know
or hear of anything, I certainly <sup>would</sup> appreciate it if you could let me know.

Sincerely,

Shige Shiomichi
