Dear Sally:

Well I made another appointment with the Real Estate man for Tuesday night. I am to see one house more carefully and also make other arrangements if everything is satisfactory. It sure has been sweltering here but this morning is cool.

I'm going to write to Toichi and ask him for the loan now.

Misumi sent me books, did I tell you. I'm getting awfully absent-minded. I heard that we are to have another draftsman in our office. I wonder what kind of a person he is. There was a card the other day from one of the Simon Boy's - Richard, ~~he~~ is up in Canada or near it, visiting a friend of his mother's. He is near a lake where they can fish, swim, or go boating. He seems to like the place very much. Gosh! these kids are all right.

I did go church yesterday but the sermon was basically wrong. He said how Jesus Christ was the best Gospel, Spirit, and Faith or words to that effect and sort of made Buddhism, & Mohammedians

2nd rate. I think he got something twisted. He shouldn't go about preaching religious supremacy besides his interpretation of the Bible was wrong.

I haven't seen Guki, Johnny, or Kay yet but I guess they looked around yesterday.

Well, I must be on my way. Can't think of anything funny to say. Please try to have some one help you honey. We will pay for it.

Love,

Kan.
