

Sunday 21st

Harling - I'm sorry about not writing for so long but this last week has been terrific - not only because of the awful wind and heat but I've been packing the freight & god what a time - esp. during the day with the kids - I've done most of it at night and consequently haven't been sleeping very much - I'm almost through with the big things - they're to be stored in the rec. hall (small ^{back} part of the former canteen) where they will be quite safe & as I finish other things they'll be taken there until it's time to ship them off. I have your ~~own~~ ^{own} sickness stuff to worry about too so it's been double trouble esp. because some of their stuff has had to be repacked because the man from Properties said they would break open & certainly not get to them - in ~~one~~ case - he thought they would be lucky if they got the boxes even so I had to repackage - Please don't write to them about it but I certainly was annoyed simply because they should have asked someone about packing - esp. canned food, of which they have enough to start a grocery store & no fooling.
What they had in one box (they used the book case your brother made) had to be put in 3 sturdy boxes - oh well. it's done now so what the hell. A man came from Provetis & measured an stuff to be crated - & then most of the crates werent large enough & Mr. Kumanoto looked through his head off to remake them. I put myself on the back because the man is really moving around for me - for a while I thought it was absolutely hopeless to get him to do anything because he'd always say "I'll do that right away" & then do nothing about it but now since the time is so short he's really going to town. The people from Jerome are coming on Wed. morning - your sister's room is to be occupied by a family of 4 - 2 children ages 11 & 15 (I think) - the name is Kofufury names. I hope they'd be nice & fairly quiet. - maybe that's asking for too much. - Our room was assigned to come one too!

The hills are fine - except the heat makes them crabby - & it's difficult then - esp. 'cause right now I'm at wits end - well, anyway, now that most of the freight is packed it won't so I can give ^{them} to them first before they leave to eat on the train. I'm asking Wash to get some material for Mrs. Fairbairn.

Someday if you run across for some chocolate mints or mints of any kind will you send me some - I've been waiting some for a he-he for a long time - also if you're in a dept. store - have some time will you go into the children's dept.

& ask for denim overalls for K III - if you remember the kind that Jean Attmore sent Mimi last year - that's the kind I want.

If they come in small, med. & large sizes - get the large size - I bought a pair of pants - medium size for him & they're too small now.

If you should find some (^{these one piece -} button either in front or back, drop seat - usually blue) please get 2 pair - also get Mimi something - maybe a dress - We have to buy things for both at once now - esp. for Mimi's change ⁵⁴ getting so she feels badly (& it's natural) if something is bought for Kaigo & nothing for her.

Today is Father's day & I wanted to send you some pictures of the children but no one knows anyone who has a camera - those pictures you have are good but awfully dated now.

Now, about the house - I leave that practically up to you but hope you'll use good judgement about the neighborhood as well as the contract. of the house - I'm a female & naturally curious about the outside looking the place - seems too bad if we have to buy a place but what the hell, there isn't anything we have to rush back to Calif. to after the war, & it always can be sold. - We do have to have ^{a home} ~~something~~ that won't be too hard to heat in the winter - And as you said - we can rent a few rooms out if they are extra.

he help her when its time for us to leave. Kango is now sleeping all ~~not~~ night without eating so its a help - Miki is really awfully good but shes so anxious to play outside that I have difficulty making her sit down to eat - keeps getting up and walking around the room like a caged lion - she takes a long afternoon nap, though (about 2 hrs) She is interested in paper dolls now so if you showed her some nice ones in the dime store will you get them for her? I cut ^{out} a few dresses etc. for the dolls each night before she goes to sleep & shes always awfully happy about it - the other night I said since I had already cut out 3 dresses it was time for her to go to sleep - she immediately said "no" & then added that the doll was cold ~~to~~ I had to ~~to~~ cut out a coat.
So after I did that she seemed satisfied & went to sleep. The Janikawa girls have given her some & I bought one set at the Coaster

Kango & Miki really get along awfully well - Miki takes care of him like a big sister - when I go to wash in the morning - (the T. girls are going to Summer School now & aren't home in the morning).

They get into the playpen together & man, do they fight - invariably Miki starts crying first - cause of they're scuffling over something - Kauzo gets mad - he comes over & grabs Miki's hair & pulls it to beat the band.

I have to laugh sometimes because when he's in the crib leaning over the side & Miki walks by - his hand shoots out & Miki screams - he always grabs her hair. They're real cute though. KIII will be 1 in just a few weeks!

About presents for people - I'd prefer waiting until we're ready to leave - then I'd let you know what to send who - it makes it embarrassing if it's done too soon or while I'm still around.

The Tanikawas are leaving at the end of the month & I wish you would send me - a box of candy & a box of cookies ≡ (2 pounds of each)

See - I hope your boss decides you're alright - good - I'm worried about this job business - if you could get on semi-permanently it would be such a relief.

Jimmy Tanig dropped in on Tuesday or maybe it was Wed. - he looked tired - I was pleased to see how mature he'd gotten - oh by the way, how's Lydia's husband? I was glad to hear you were alright from someone about just seen you.

Monday -

The mail goes out in a few minutes so I'll have to close - K III lived from 12:00 to 3:00 AM. so I'm real sleepy today - Boys are certainly difficult to bring up.

I wrote to Kizie about her plans + overs but haven't heard yet

Got a letter from Virg. Remain recently - she's in Oklahoma with Richard.

Will write shorter & more frequent letters from now on -

Good luck to all my love

Suezy.

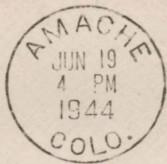

Will you sign the enclosed check?

① Do you want the table top from your sisters room - you know the one that really belongs to a men table?

② - Shall I eventually know out the Zenline Cars?

③ - The fluorescent light does not light more side - Frank (Hironaka) came in & took a look at it - said something was worn out on that side - he pulled it out - shall send it to you or wait
