Dear Kate —

Many thanks for last night!! Things I saw there made a pleasant after dinner hour chat this evening — and I must say that the exposition certainly had much to show. — I still like the door knobs & especially the "speak easy" holes.

How's your "little" punctured foot? Hope it's better!!

Had to go down to Oakland
this afternoon - couldn't help but think of you &
the rest of the outside workers being drenched - or were you taking it easy?

Many thanks again !!

and

Good - night,

Mirva
