Dear Koko:

Thanks for the books just received. Wes has some of those books. I read several of them and enjoyed them very much - or maybe you remember that. Anyway I expect I will enjoy these too.

Right now what I really need is a book on how to be business-like. These sub-contractors wear me down. Unless you keep after them every minute they won't work or they are careless. A hell of a thing to gripe in a letter though.

I am trying to take care of the landscaping along with the house. Moved 2 junipers (real ones) and 2 dogwoods in the middle of July with great success. Thank you. Will endeavor to carry the anti-Howe tradition of planting onward to still greater victories.

Before I got here I pruned away like the devil at Taliesin. Jack went around saying everything was dead. Mr Wright said no. I hope I didn't wreck anything.

Went home for a few days - had planned to go to the shore but rain prevented and then Wes phoned up and we bummed around U.Y. a bit + trying that new Zombie drink at 1.25 a throw and eating fairly fancy. Still haven't had any Chinese food. The other house I am doing is held up by the Bldg inspector. I got Wes working on a scientific proof that the walls would stay up and then we also have another idea and so hope to get it started soon which will certainly keep me busy going back + forth to Baltimore. I am also supposed to keep some client happy up in New Jersey. By mail I guess.

Wish you were here so we could stand off and look at the planting like a couple of geniuses.

Let me hear what you are doing
Thanks again
Gordon
