

Dear Kan -

I suppose you are packing up, ready to leave for Colorado. Send me your new address, and I hope this reaches you before you leave. I wish I had $10 to spare for those Covarrubias paintings. Just the thing for my den back home - you know those sloping sides on the ceiling. Just the place to paste up those pictures. My folks came to visit me here from Santa Anita. The place has improved since I left. I've been wanting to catch up on my reading as soon as cool weather sets in but don't know where to get the books. I'll let you practice on my house. But remember, I'm a hard man to please. Till next time - Ichiro
