AIR MAIL

Dear Eric - So now its Tuesday & I shall be going home on Thursday afternoon which is about 2 days longer than most women stay. The baby is very cute - looks like Kathie when she was this age - eats better than all 3 ever did so I dont anticipate any trouble - she's small - weighs just a bit over 6 lbs. now & is 17" long. I cant say this was an easy birth - matter of fact it was heck bad - but its over now so what. Ken has been devoting a great deal of time to the other 3 - took them to New Jersey - close to Pennsylvania - for over the week end with friends so they had a bit of a vacation - they got back last night & he came in looking like a tramp - took 3 hours to drive back so he came here before they went home. Apparently had a wonderful time & came home with a little puppy - so now we have not only a baby but a dog to care for too but they've been wanting both for long time so thats that. Actually I think Ken was anxious to get away from Nans kids - they honestly drive you crazy & since he isnt home usually - they drive him a little crazy - god - they get into his dressing equipment so that he can't find things etc. fool around with the TV & the radio - & pay no little attention to what you may say - I usually get mad & push them out of the house. - But you is a very poor disciplinarian & certainly those kids have no regard for property (esp. ours) - so it very bad - Mike gets breakfast & lunch with Kai's help so you only has to get them dinner - which apparently is bedlam with the boys around - I'm sure they'd like my coming home just because we then can have reasonable calm & quiet esp. during dinner time. Hava will come out again on Wednesday I guess & stay for a day or two - she was over this week end - saw them off on their trip & then ~~re~~ scribbled some of the floors & some came up to see me before leaving on Sunday night. Russia is coming this afternoon to take the kids to town to buy a leash etc. for the dog. I must say I do worry about the poor dog -

Kenny not so long ago folded one of Mike's fish in half & killed it - he'll probably want to put all over this poor puppy + do damage too.
Oh me what a business.

I think we are naming the baby Christina or Christine - (Kathie picked it - will call her Christy or Timmy) there's a long story about the name Teru - I'm not sure what to do about it - will talk to Kaul when he gets here today - but Teru's girl's middle name is Teru - & when she was born ~~there~~ there was much discussion + disapproval about it simply because apparently at one time Mrs. Donato ~~had~~ told Wale that she didn't want any grand children named after her.
Can mama think of another name? - fast.

It's been one of the hottest summers in years - the temp. stays anywhere between 85 - 90 75 all the time + the humidity is about as high - easy to kill anyone. The baby was born a week ahead of time which was just a sweet - I would have persisted but it gone on my mind longer.

Poor Anny was so disappointed - but will get over it - the day will probably help things along.

Wednesday

I will send this off - please right away let us know about ~~the~~ another Japanese name - we have since yesterday definitely decided to call the baby Christine - (Chris, Christy or Christy),

Has Sue told you she would be around here at the beginning of September? I think Mary is pretty fond - why is it she doesn't say a few things to her? The way she acts is in essence very much like Toichi & Alice. Maybe I should start demonstrating lots from ~~your~~ guys - gods, Ken would die.

Funny thing about ~~the~~ kids - you'd think they'd call to let us know he was going out west - He didn't call or anything - just in the week - Called him several times after they were married & then just simply because there's the reason why I should keep trying to maintain some kind of relationship - well - it doesn't really matter. Hope they appreciated what I've all set for them.

What night away will you? I'm going home tomorrow afternoon & will probably go through a messy stage for a while but school starts in less than a month now so it'll be

Hay. Love
Am home now - Friday - Sally Key tell me you called - was sorry he couldn't talk to you about names.
