Dear Ken, Sally and Yuri,

Herbert and I wish to express our sincere sympathy to you in the passing of your father this week. We are glad he was comparatively well during the time he was back from the hospital and that he could enjoy your companionship, and have the pleasure of his grandchildren, for even

November 2

Dear Tom, I hope you are well and I wish to express my sincere appreciation to you in the form of your letter this week. The fact is we were well during the time he was back from the hospital and that he could enjoy your company, and have the pleasure of his grandchildren, for even so short a time.

I very much enjoyed a conversation I had
with him not so long ago and appreciated
his philosophic comments a lot. In sure he was a fine
gentleman.

Yours truly,
Margaret Walthen
