Dear Mr. Doumoto:

I have had your address this long while - from Miss Elderdice - and have intended writing long before now. I did not want to lose track of you. For we enjoyed those few minutes with you so much.

This is to wish you well & to report that we are about as when you saw us. Summer School is half over; we begin the second session tomorrow. Hope New York is as kind to you with the weather as Maryland is to us.

Do I notice a few signs of better racial understanding among us? Or are I too "Pollyanna-ish"?

Are you still separated from your family? - Remember they can come to us here if it will do any good. We think of you often.

Hope your work is not too far away from the field of your talents & training.

Let us hear from you when you have time to write a line. And come to our home whenever you can.

Sincerely,

Douglas Chandler
