

Dear Eric - So now its Tuesday & I shall be going home on Thursday afternoon which is about 2 days longer than most women stay. The baby is very cute - looks like Kathie when she was this age - eats better than all 3 we did so I dont anticipate any trouble - she's small - weighs just a bit over 6 lbs. now & is 17" long. I cant say this was an easy birth - matter of fact it was heads bad - but its over now so what. Kan has been devoting a great deal of time to the other 3 - took them to New Jersey - close to Pennsylvania - for over the week end with friends so they had a bit of a vacation - they got back last night & he came in looking like a tramp - took 3 hours to drive back so he came here before they went home. Apparently had a wonderful time & came home with a little puppy - so now we have not only a baby but a dog to care for too but they've been wanting both for a long time so thats that. Actually I think Kan was anxious to get away from your kids - they honestly drive you crazy & since he isnt home usually - they drive him a little crazier - god - they get into his drawing equipment so that he can't find things etc. fool around with the T.V. & the radio - & pay so little attention to what you may say - I usually get mad & push them out of the house. - But Yuri is a very poor disciplinarian. & certainly these kids have no regard for property (esp. ours) - so it's very bad - Miki gets breakfast & lunch with Kari's help so you only has to get them dinner - which apparently is bedlam with the 3 boys around - I'm sure they'll like my coming home just because we then can have reasonable calm & quiet esp. during dinner time. Hana will come out again on Wednesday I guess & stay for a day or two - she was over this week end - saw them off on their trip & then ~~now~~ scrubbed some of the floors & ~~now~~ came up to see me before leaving on Sunday night. Russia is coming this afternoon to take the kids to town to buy a leash etc. for the dog. I must say I do worry about the poor dog -

Kenny not so long ago folded one of Miki's fish in half & killed it - bill probably want to sit all over this poor puppy + do damage too.
Oh me what a business.

I think we are naming the baby Christina or Christine - (Kathie picked it - will ease her (Christy or Tom?) there's a long story about the name Teru - I'm not sure what to do about it - will talk to Kaul when he gets here today - but Joichi's girl's middle name is Teru - & when she was born ~~they~~ there was much discussion + disapproval about it simply because apparently at one time Mrs. Donald ~~had~~ told Wak that she didn't want any grandchildren named after her.
Can mama think of another name? - fast.

Its been one of the hottest summers in years - the temp. stays anywhere between 85 - 90 - 95 all the time + the humidity is about as high - enough to kill anyone. The baby was born a week ahead of time which was just as well - I'd never have perished had it gone on very much longer.

Poor Anny was so disappointed - but will get over it - the day will probably help things along.

Wednesday

I will send this off - please right away let us know about ~~an~~ another Japanese name - we have since yesterday definitely decided to call the baby Christine (Chis. Christy or Chissy).

Has Su told you she would be around here at the beginning of September? I think Mary is pretty fond - why is it she doesn't say a few things to her? The way she acts is in essence very much like Toichi & Alice. Maybe I should start demanding lots from youse guys - gods, Ken would die.

Funny thing about ~~the~~ Andy - you'd think he'd call to let us know he was going out west - He didn't call or anything - gain in the week -

Called him several times after they were married & then quit simply because there's no reason why I should keep trying to maintain some kind of relationship - well - it doesn't really matter. Hope they appreciated what you all did for them.

Write right away will you? I'm going home tomorrow afternoon & will probably go through a messy stage for a while but school starts in less than a month now so it'll be

May. Love

Am home now - Friday - Sally

May tell me you called - we sorry he couldn't talk to you about me.
