

April 30th.

My dear Margery:-

Just a few lines before I retire, to say that I enjoyed the play, <sup>very</sup> much with your company. I thank you.

If you waited about ten minutes before take that 7th Car rain was stopped as no raining when I coming home.

Margery please

Make up your mind by Sunday Eve and make me ful happy. I really do think of you more than my own mother. I will do my ~~own~~ utmost best I can to make you feel happy.
 I truly love you love you love you. I never I could live without you the

My-tubby-like-Girl. Come come and be my wife
 I will take good care of you, Margary!

It is after 2 o'clock now good night have pleasant dream
Your loving friend Tom
