

March 19 - 15

My Dear Miss Rabury

I received your letter the day before yesterday and very sorry to say that I have not been having a chance to invite our friends since the middle of January until to-day, that the war effects on our business as I had a month and a half vacation also Mr.

Ashin-ara is getting five days work in weeks at his office and the war panic made us to keep very economical way on our expence.

About three weeks ago I came back to the work from my long vacation and is going smoothly.

I never forgotten of you, and hoping that the war panic were not attack on your job, but I neglected to write you to postpone the date which we meet. I hope you will forgive me.

We moved next door apt. (7 (same floor) a week ago, it is nicer than before.

Can you not come and take dinner with us on Easter-Sunday (April 4th)
at three o'clock P. m.?

Hoping see you soon

Sincerely yours

Mrs. K. Ashin-ore

When I first met you (qualifier)

NEW YORK, N.Y. STAM.
MAR 19
10³⁰PM
1915

Miss Margery Ashbury

1435 — 56 St.

Brooklyn N.Y.

50
42

Mrs. K. Ashin-ara
304 W. 111 St.
City