My dear Sweetheart: -

I have been thinking of you awful lot. Hope there is no serious changes.

Have you heard from Jiji? I hope his cold is better by this time.

It has been cold winterly out look - Ideal hunting weather I suppose.

Thanks Mr. Agnes, Milk of magnesia is better than Takazyme or Soda. Neutralized alkaline very nicely.

I am going bath room 2 or 3 times a day and sit up 15 m. or so. I feel I can do <sup>that</sup> but no no gain my weight.

I received Foot ball schedule - I mean scores and wool and needle. but my blanket is no more good - it is beyond of I could repair. Some day - I shall buy from Leonard - Price is gone up $10<sup>00</sup> 76" x 90" double blanket. gray - rose - blue or yellow any color.

I am eating most any thing now. Yesterday steak I eat. So I am ok. please do not worry about me.

Tomorrow is Nov 1st.

And I like to start write Poetry. I have hundreds of letters from you
 since you went city to work
 And that letters I want to condense into Japanese poetry of 40 lines. I. II.
 III. IV. V. First 4 almost outlines. Last one <sup>is</sup> to write
 Of course it is pretty <sup>strong</sup> expressions are used because it's condensed from all letters from you. Title will be - To my husband
 from Japanese wife.

Then I want to write from me to you
 what I have said for
 what you have done for me
 and George.

These are our secret poetry. For you to keep, not to show any one. Later on you can ask Japanese give poets in ~~the~~ Washington <sup>library</sup> - She may be able to translate them into English poetry.

Please take best care of yourself.

Dearest love to my Mother Bird - wife and best girl.
