

20 & urge —

This picture is of your father (at left) and you. Looked as very much like him, at that age —

I do not know who other little boy is — must be member of Tsunayama family.

Your grandfather and grandmother are seated in centre — They are exceptionally good looking, I think — especially grandmother Nara — sensitive and aristocratic features — three daughters, and I suppose one seated is mother of 3 babies and wife of young man —

Kobayashi is her married name other two girls married a Mr. Eudo, whose son became a child specialist - and was a member of the Royal household, looking after young princesses -

Other daughter married a Mr. Tokuzen.

I do not know, but I believe the long narrow folded letters are from your father's parents - so I have kept them. Perhaps some day, you might have them translated and you would understand more of Japanese home life of Tsumanuma family
