

August 29, 1965

Dear George:

In your letter of July 31st you apologized for not writing to me sooner - but I think I have delayed answering you longer than you could possibly have expected & am - as - my apologies to you. However, I have no faint excuse, as you were to be away in Colorado the last two weeks in this month.

I hope you, Tina and Peter did get off on that trip, and that it was in every way successful.

The day that your letter arrived one came from Candy also telling one how much he enjoyed being with you and also of your invitation to him and Marquette. But I haven't heard as yet whether they did elope to San Francisco and to see you.

I was glad to read the nice things you said of Sandy. I'm very fond of him and am happy that he has become friendly with you.

His last word (in the John one day) was that he would get to Philadelphia about the middle of September.

I'm flattered that two vigorous young bucks discoursed a reunion with an old crack like me. Anyhow I'm all for it and hope that it will happen.

If it does it should be in New York for although I'm still stuck here in Westport I am hoping to leave before the end of September.

It is good to hear of the many projects you are working on in the office - and those you are working for - I hope you get them too. When I hear of such work coming to you I really feel just as gratified and happy as I could in the old days if they were coming to Rockiss and Thompson;

These are your best years now. It is sad that they are clouded by personal troubles.

You are blessed, hence, by three two fine children. and with your mother a great team.

I know your grief for and miss Bally and the baby - and I am sorry - I know what sorrow is too, we have to do the best we can

Affectionately John.