Ursula Dear Agnes,

Today, to my great surprise I received a package from no less than a Mrs. Rockrise. I was both surprised & very delighted. Then when I opened it I was even more so. A beautiful red scarf appeared! I want to thank you more than a little for your generosity. I am wearing my hair in a new style to which even a scarf is very beneficial. I shall save it for the City, however, so as to have something new to start a new school with.

Here we have a wonderful time. Yesterday night it rained, breaking a quite long heat wave. I guess you got it too. I will be home soon, ending a delightful summer. Till then, again Thanks & much Love: affectionately,
Maud
