MRS. HOWARD C. TAYLOR

840 PARK AVENUE

NEW YORK CITY

Dear Mr. Robbins

~~Have not for gotten~~

you - and never will.

I have in bed, have been for nearly a week, with a "flu" cold, but am better this morning. I think

Dr. Beard has made his last visit.
I think the worst cold I have ever remembered having had.

I got your Society letter Easter eve.
I should have acknowledged it.

I have not been away at all, not even for week end in Southport week back. I still have had a rather near winter, colds &

"lummy aches" to office.
O! Taylor is well, an occasional attack of feet, & then he is up & out again, & always cheerful
feel. — I have lots to write about, but not up to much just
now. Claire & North have another baby - boy - three <sup>weeks old</sup> ~~of~~ tomorrow.
Named after his father. Weighed 7 lbs - 12 ounces. Claire very well & happy.
I'll try & write again soon & tell you more. — We are going to move - can you believe it?
Not opening Courtport house
until end of May!

Write still me how you are -
still happy in your little home
with George?

Just a little houseick for a night in New York, aren't you?
Never think I'll forget you.

affectionately yours

Alice C. Taylor
