In reply to your letter regarding the ability & character of Mr. Agnes Rockwell - She came to my home as practical nurse, to care for my invalid sister, and remained with us for about sixteen months, until the patient died. - Mr. Rockwell, in my eyes, is an unusually fine woman, I can find nothing but admiration for her high character. As for ability as a nurse I can only Say that she was always under the order of the attending physician and carried them out efficiently - was tireless in her attention to the patient.

Mr. Krohn was appreciated by my family - was considerate of the nurses & liked by them. I recommend him most highly.
