

"Challenging Youth in an Age of Tension,"
Theme for the 1964 Lake Sequoia Retreat.

The theme for the 1964 Lake Sequoia Retreat, "Challenging Youth in an Age of Tension," has been announced. The scriptures will be taken from Philippians 3:13-14 and the retreat hymn will be "The Voice of God is Calling."

The retreat has been set for August 8-14 at Camp Redwood, Lake Sequoia.

Education groups for the retreat have been selected and was also decided that they relate to the theme. The following groups, topics, and leaders have been selected: College group will be led by Reverend Lloyd Wake, "Our Mission Today;" upper high school will be led by Rev. Joseph Sakakibara, Father James Nakamura, Reverend Norio Ozaki, and Reverend Masaji Goto, "The Challenging World;" lower high school will be led by Reverend Roy Sasaki and Reverend Shunpachi Lanow, "Social Problems."

Interest groups and leaders have also been tentatively scheduled and are as follows: Newspaper will be headed by Reverend William Kobayashi; choir; worship workshop will be led by Mrs. June Joshiyuki and Reverend Masaji Goto; basket weaving will be led by Reverend Norio Ozaki; and religious drama will be led by Mrs. Norio Ozaki.

