FOR

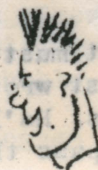

ALL

and

TWIN!

~~See~~ our Thnooper from SACRAMENTO :

RICHARD IMAGAWA seemed pretty enthused about getting names for his autograph-book. He even walked around during the Friday banquet. Who's the Berkeley girl whom you dazzled with your smile, Dick?

JAMES KUBO & CO. furnished practically all the noise from Sac'to at the banquet tables. Shhhh, but he writes the nicest compliments on girls' autograph books! How much for lessons, Jimmie?

GEORGE HARA and FRANK KAWAI were pretty scared about leaving their handsome faces out of the confab picture, but don't worry girls, they're there. You'll find them.

It must be a hard life to be a celebrity. DAVE OKADA almost wrote his fingers off signing all the autograph books. He'll probably bring calling cards the next time and pass them out.

MASARU YOKOYAMA'S got the most beaming-est grin! It'd be a good idea to have his warm smile around on these cold days.

MINORU OKADA has definite ideas on organists--especially at a conference. Yes siree.

One of our clever Thnoopers from the Sac'to Valley sent these ~~one-act-one-scene-one-minute~~ plays:

Insistant Inspiration

SEICHI TSUDA: Tell me, Shu, did you find an inspiration at the conference, and did you bring it back with you?

SHU FUJISHIRO: Well, yes and no.

SEICHI: Why yes and no?

SHU: Well, y'see, I did find an inspiration, but she insisted on going back to San Jose.

Heavy Profit

REV. SASAKI: This year's conference has done wonders to you. I could see it beaming radiantly from your happy face.

AMY MURAKAMI: ~~Cosh!~~ I didn't mean to be so piggish. Have I gained so much?

met. ... maybe it's someone they've

ISAMI ITO, JOE KUBOTA, and JIMMY NAKAMURA found their toes ungracefully tied one morning at the home of their host. JIRO SHIMAKAWA, however, was found quite "foot-loose".
Puzzle: Find culprit.

BAKERS FIELD (where bakers arn't the only ones who know the field):

Why was EUNICE MOHRI headed for the ice-pick at the conference? Getting "militaristic", huh?

BERNICE OKAHARA didn't come up 'n see us this year. Wonder what kept her.

LARY UYETANI certainly believes in silence being golden.

IOLA MIYAJI came up to see what sort of animal the conference was. Hope she liked us.

Someone pointed out FLOSSIE MIYAJI to us and said oil spouted on the Miyaji land. Is that where all the boys go in the summer to annually oil their technique--and eat grapes, too?

Our southern Thnooper sez winchelly-teshion that FUKUE KAWAKAMI and HEIJI KITAHARA were seen holding hands across the table at banquet. It was a lil' cold, tho', wasn't it?

We all want to know whose necklace EUNICE MOHRI is wearing. Let us in on the deep, dark secret, huh? Aw, pleez.

FLOSSIE thot she wuz getting too old for conferences, but she's only starting. Wasn't Friday nite's banquet fun?

Bakersfield seems to take a fancy to S.F.--maybe, it's the fog that they like. Among other things, GEORGE KYOTOW, NOBU NISHIMOTO, MITO KANEKO, and BILL FUJITA are "factors".

FRESH? NO! (oh my)

YAEKO NAGAI met a nice chap from Alameda, it's sed. Is he verree, verree nice, Yae?

FRED YAMAMOTO and TOM SAITO, two Paly neophytes each received a ribbon-badge for helping the General Arrangement committee.

SADA OKAZAWA, also a neophyte, says she was thrilled beyond words.

HELEN MINETA of S.J. in a long huddle with big sister, AYA, telling her all the news from home.

ART USHIRO introducing his feminine friends from Monterey, his home-town no.2.

KIMIKO HUGASHIUCHI of Los Altos impatiently waiting for her future sis-in-law to show up.

WAL, NUTS TO YOU!

ICHIRO ARIMOTO of Walnut Grove found his own signature twice in his own autograph book. He still doesn't know how it happened.

MARY SAITA, BETTY SATO, ALICE MEDA were seen 'round the stores near the campus. Guess they were hungry.

GRACE FUJII was caught holding hands during an assembly. Uh, she was prayin'.

BESSIE MATSUOKA'S traveling case has a mind of its own cuz BESSIE couldn't find the nomadic bag one nite and suffered as only a girl without her overnite bag can suffer.

KIMI SAITA (pointing at Dr. Takao) asked: "Who is he?" Tsk,tsk

BAYEE REEJUN THNOOPIN'S

YONE HIRANO (O.M.E.) likes chili-concarne, we think, and especially the "chili" part of it.

WILLIE MINAMI (O.M.E., too) is such a kindhearted soul that it took him four hours to make up his mind about killing a flea he caught at Congregational Church.

TORU YAMAGUCHI (y'know, that frantic boy who went 'round looking for cars to borrow) raves about the new girls he meets. He's perpetually "I n a rave".

CAROL IINO, the girl with the Betty Boopy eyes, seemed linked with a very big link---southern hardware, we're told.

RITSU YAMAGISHI Has the loveliest eyes, one news scribe said--and so we looked, and fer goo'nness sakes, they were gorjus!

OSA KOMATSU loves china-meshi --and especially in good company. Good company makes such a nice background for pakai and tofu yu, y'know. (Hope S.F. doesn't wring our nex!)

MICHI INOUE takes away honors from big brother, ARI for having the most envied, waviest hair.

ROGER YAMATA wanted to make himself at home at the I-House dinner Fri. nite and to make things realistic, he--ever so-o-o naturally--tipped over a clanky, ol' brass ash stand.

TOMO ITO (Berk.) has the most disarming smile and giggle. He's the only boy we like to hear giggle.

ED KUROISHI (Berk.) has nice floral tastes, our Thncooper sez--especially for short-stemmed lilies.

GEORGE KYOTOW (S.F.) is Alameda property every one sez and GEO. doesn't deny it nor affirm it. It's only the "weather" you like, tho', isn't it? We aly like the "weather" anyplace.

A certain Bksfld. girl was dying to meet BILL O-MURA. She's still living.

"Mary had a little lamb"---but BILL FUJITA was sort of more-or-less mary-less at the conference.

TAK MAYEWAKI was boosting the Fresno Sectional conference with unexcelled high pressure.

We're proud of our HELEN KAZATO, who's known in the conference circle as the damsel with the dexterous fingers.

HARRY KAZATO of the same family seems tongueless. Bet the dentist is the only one who knows he's got one.

SANTA CLAUS Valley Thnooper sends:

Palo Altans agree that the tremendous popularity of HENRY TANI at the conference is due to his newly-formulated "Stanford Technique". For details, write him in care of The Farm.

Our idea of will-power supreme: ELSIE HIRAYAMA went home Saturday night to Mt. View to study for exams.

Civic hospitality: The city of Berkeley handed MAS OKUDA of Paly a reception card in the form of a police tag for double-parking.

Next year, the famed TOKUNAGA TWINS of San Jose, HELEN and LEAH, will probably wear different styles of clothes so they wont be kept busy identifying themselves.

BILL SASAGAWA was seen rushing a different OME girl each day. It's just the Accent on Oakland.

Observations: GEORGE KAMBARA, Sac'to lad, was extremely depressed at times.

Probable reason: Only two girls from the home-town came up for the conference.

Wanted: Two males escorts for EMILY YOSHIDA and HARUKO OKUDA the next time they cross the Bay from S.F. They almost wound up on Albany.

TOM OKI and MICH WATANABE (Stanfordites) are barely recovering from the shock of totally strange girls popping up from nowhere and asking for autographs. This is their first year but watch 'em next year.

Personal nomination for the most silent girl at the

View's ALICE OKIMOTO. (Ed.'s note: Didn't anyone talk at the conference beside the speakers?)

The TAKAICHI FAMILY of San Jose came thru strong again this year with a representation of four.

The O.M.E. girls have a system all their own in bringing visitors to their church. Jus' ask GEORGE TANAKA, ED-DIE HIMEDA, GEORGE NAKAGAWA, and JOHN KITASAKO. Sunday morning after the sunrise service the four were walking from Lake Merritt to the Oakland Independent Church when MARTHA HAYAKAWA and IYO YAMASHITA came along on a car and horse-collared the males. They bro't them to the Yamashita abode; fed them a big breakfast; then proceeded to bring them to the O.M.E. over the vain protests of the boys.

(Ed.'s note: Goodness, we tho't Amazons were things of the past! We have a funny feeling that the protests weren't very loud, anyhow.)

Predictions ran true to form when EVA SATO picked out Alameda to visit for Sunday School worship.

ELSON FUNABIKI, one of the assistant football managers at Stanford, took a Saturday off for the conference but he had a hard time keeping away from the radio between 2 and 4 P.M.

Poor SOYO OKAZAWA of Paly didn't know she had "coffee nerves" until she drank a little too much Friday nite and couldn't sleep until 3:00 A.M. To make matters worse she had to listen to Grace Yoshida's off-key snoring.

Noticed in passing:

HENRI OKAGAKI of S.J. arriving at Baptist after the Stanford-Santa Clara game in company with MARTHA and LENA.

BESSY SASAGAWA and CAL USHIRO, Paly's Permanent Arrangement, enjoying rumble-seat riding.

KIYO SATO and GRACE HONDA still blushing from what was said in a certain Saturday a.m. discussion group, as who

Benediction for almost any family circle: God bless our scrappy home".

If Detroit were heaven: "Dear Ford and Father of mankind."

Good Manners: The happy way of doing things.
