

At some point along the line, both the IALL & other reform groups are going to have to put aside both any real or imagined differences, & patch up our fences for the good of the cause.

We just need to remember the hour is late, over 40 years late. & that "it starts w/me"

By acting constructively & decisively, by addressing solutions instead of fighting the problem, hopefully we can eliminate whatever divides us. We can demand state to the community we serve, that the issue frustrating our best efforts can be positively resolved if we work as a team — & it starts

W/ me... & you.

I hope + pray ever day
today will be the start!
