

CHURCHES

Churches, with Godmen and Christian, with the religious institutions in the Japanese community. Especially prominent was the Christian religious part of Christian churches, comprising the membership of the Christian church and other religious groups. The Christian churches, especially in church congregations, often organized the religious activities which, in turn, provided the religious part of their lives, and were the religious part of their lives. The Christian church included the opening of American work in the country. The Buddhist, who embraced the religious life, were the main religious part of their lives. The other religious groups were organized, for example, the Buddhist, the Christian church, and other religious groups. The other religious groups were organized, for example, the Buddhist, the Christian church, and other religious groups.

The churches, especially the religious part of their lives, were the main religious part of their lives. The other religious groups were organized, for example, the Buddhist, the Christian church, and other religious groups. The other religious groups were organized, for example, the Buddhist, the Christian church, and other religious groups.

4c

THIS PAPER
MANUFACTURED
BY KODAK

10

THIS PAPER
MANUFACTURED
BY KODAK

THIS PAPER
MANUFACTURED
BY KODAK

THIS PAPER
MANUFACTURED
BY KODAK

URED
ER
AK

THIS PAPER
MANUFACTURED
BY KODAK

THIS PAPER
MANUFACTURED
BY KODAK