Dear Mr. Takahashi:

Our good friend in Washington,
Mrs. Etsu Masaoka, has sent me a copy of her letter of April 30, indicating that she sent you a copy of Private Law 260 in your behalf.

I am taking the matter up at once with the Immigration Service with a view to having them close out the Immigration case, and will communicate with you as soon as I have received their reply.

Yours very truly,

FITZGERALD, WALKER, CONLEY & HOPPING

SUNCOOK

SUNCOOK, June 15.—Many Suncook young people will be pleased to learn of the excellent standing of the young Japanese, Gentaro Takahashi, who was graduated yesterday from the college of business administration of Boston university, receiving the degree of bachelor of business administration. He was one of twenty-three in the class of 118 who received the degree "Cum Laude." During the stay of Mr. Takahashi, in this town he made many friends.

Rev. J. Kirkwod Craig, former pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, has been doing the past year graduate work in Boston university, school of religious education, and has been given the degree of Master of Religious Education. Rev. Mr. Craig, at present is director of activities for young men and boys, in Boston at the Lincoln house, a community centre in the South end, and expects to continue graduate work another year in the University of Dr. Arhearn.
