

Harvard University

Order of Final Examinations in Courses in the Graduate School of Business Administration, 1916-17

 Regulations: "No student is permitted to take any books or papers into the examination room except by express direction of the instructor. No communication is permitted between students in the examination room on any subject whatever."

"A student who is not in the examination room within five minutes after the hour appointed for the examination shall not be admitted without permission of the instructor or of the officer in general charge of the examinations."

Examinations begin at 9.15 A.M. and for full courses last not more than four hours; for half-courses, not more than three hours.

Examinations to be held in PIERCE 110 unless otherwise stated.

2
10
Thursday, May 24 Contracts.
*Financial Management of Railroad Companies.
Printing (Advanced).

Friday, May 25 *Accounting Practice.
*Life Insurance.
*Chamber of Commerce Work, and Methods.
Law of Banking Operations.

Saturday, May 26 Marketing.
Business Policy.
*Latin-American Trade.

Monday, May 28 Accounting Principles.
Accounting Problems.
*Railroad Accounting and Statistics.

Tuesday, May 29 Banking.
Printing.
Railroad Operation.
*Fire Insurance Engineering.
P.M. *General Lumbering, 2-5 in University 17.

Thursday, May 31 *Factory Practice.
Factory Management (Advanced).
Law of Business Associations.
*Investments.
Government 31 (On Harvard College schedule)
Sever 5.

Friday, June 1 Taylor System of Management.
*Water Transportation.
Railroad Rate-Making.

- Monday, May 1: Railroad Rate-Making, Management of a Retail Store, Government of a Retail Store (On Harvard College schedule), Principles of Business, Factory Management (Advanced), Factory Practice.
- Tuesday, May 2: Railroad Operation, Banking.
- Wednesday, May 3: Railroad Accounting and Statistics, Accounting Principles, Accounting Practice.
- Thursday, May 4: Anglo-American Trade, Business Policy, Marketing.
- Friday, May 5: Principles of Banking Operations, Principles of Commercial Bank and Finance, The Insurance, Accounting Practice.

7100

Marguerite Hall
 Grace Stover

Examinations for half-courses, not more than three hours
 Examinations for full-courses, not more than four hours
 Examinations for the night courses, not more than two hours Examinations for the office in general charge of the office, the hour appointed for the examination shall not be extended without the consent of the instructor who is not in the examination room within five minutes on the day of the examination.
 No communication is permitted between students in the examination room into the examination room except by express question of the instructor.
 Regulations: No student is permitted to take any books or papers

School of Business Administration, 1916-17
 Order of Final Examinations in Courses in the Graduate
 Harvard University