Miss Waka Dimoto,
314 Walnut Street,
San Francisco 18, California.

My dear Waka:

Bob and Bonnie were at home when your Christmas card came. We were all delighted to locate you again but somewhat astonished to find you in San Francisco. I had thought you were going back to Chester, Pennsylvania, or somewhere on the east coast. Now, when you get this letter sit down and write us a story and tell us how you are and how the world has been treating you.

The whole family became very much attached to you when you were here several years ago.

Bob and Bonnie have a new baby named after my first wife, Gretchen. She is the exact copy of her big sister. I still maintain that Kiddie Karr is the brightest little youngster that ever lived.

Bob is in school at the University of Colorado and will finish his law course sometime during 1949. He will then come into the office with me.

Cynthia is living in St. Paul and has a big boy named Ralph Deane, nine months old, who is big enough to be a Minnesota football player. They didn't come home for Christmas because Bill is to be away from home soon and Cynthia and the boy will come to visit with me.

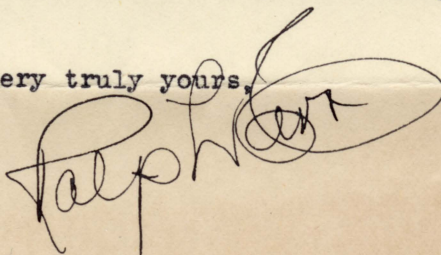

We often talk of you and the good times we had at the Carr house with the soldiers and the others while you were living with us and being so kind. Please let us hear from you.

Miss Waka DiMoto - 2

I almost forgot to tell you the only important news of the last few months. On the third of November I married a lovely lady named Mrs. Eleanor Fairall How. She is a very fine woman and my only wonder is how I ever induced her to marry me. You will have to add her to your Denver friends.

Very truly yours,
