Easter

Happy Easter -

Am sending your shoes - try for size and if you find them a little bit wide, send them back and I will get the red soled pr. I really hesitated because the others look better and altho they swear it is the same "C" width, there is actually a  $\frac{1}{8}$  or little more difference; so thought get the wider + the store won't object to trading if it is for a more costly pr. Suddenly June seemed very near and thought another ration ticket will be out <sup>soon</sup> for replacement, in case of necessity. Sorry couldn't make it for Easter. How's the mattress look? Did the dress fit?

Wak.
